SKETCHBOOK

by Bud Pisarek

— sketches —
I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those kind souls, and we won't mention what kind, for their thoughtfulness and kind cards of sympathy last Saturday.

— sketches —
To clarify the above sketch for those of you who may be in the dark let me say this, USC 33, Wisconsin 21. Sad, but true.

— sketches —
We ain't dead yet. Although all the cards were with black borders and someone even suggesting a wreath on our front door. Wait until the ROSE BOWL.

— sketches —
Every time it rains here abouts, M. S. Brainard reminds us mid-westerners and we quote "Remember, you don't have to shovel it."

— sketches —
Dan Styers' wife has completely forgotten to ask hubby about the price of the rod and reel ever since he landed the 31 pound salmon. Dan was out the other morn with Joe Sayer and old fisherman himself, Frenchie Arrell. Joe and Frenchie aren't saying what they caught. Probably just a cold.

— sketches —
Many people keep telling us we need more names in the paper. I solved the solution and plan on getting everyone in this issue. Here are the 26 characters of the alphabet. A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z ... just sort out whatever ones fit your monicker and everyone is happy... yes?

Funeral services were held for "Jim" LeClair, at Gold Beach, Tuesday, with interment in the new cemetery there. Jim, with his brother, Cleveland, came to the Rogue many years ago and fished the stream, commercially, until it was closed to nets. Jim is reported to have died at Requa, where he had been living for some time. He is survived by widow, children and grandchildren, living around Gold Beach.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kies have been visiting Joe's brother, Father Emil, at the local parish house. With the men's mother, they have been doing some extensive and successful salmon fishing.
