MAVERICK HISTORY GIVEN

A baby girl who started life on August 23, 1853, began a chain of happenings which extended over our own and the two neighboring counties.

Mary E., was the daughter of Henry and Rachel Frame and we have it on the authority of the pioneers as Raleigh Scott, Asa Crook, and others, that little Mary was the first white child born in the infant settlement later known as Crescent City. These worthy elders also say that the whole town took a day off and celebrated the event in true style.

Mary's brother, Frank, was born in Smith River, September 20, 1854, and may well have been the first boy of his race born there

So far, this writer has turned up nothing as to what became of the father, Henry Frame and the thread shifts somewhat to Maverick B. Gregory.

We find in the contract survey field notes of 1857 that Mr. Gregory's home was very close to where the Upper Chetco School now sits and soon after title to this property includes his wife Rachel, and in February, 1881, in disposing of M. B's estate she sold the property to Johnson Gardner, well known as the sire of quite a large local family, and the property eventually became what is now the Carl White and George Funk places

Getting back to Maverick, he is said to have squatted, at one time about a mile south of Euchre Creek. This writer has seen, in the early records, reference to "Old Gregg's Creek" but not definitely located where Gregg's Creek is now marked. He held several county offices, having been County Judge of Curry in 1861, (at a salary of $200 per annum) and although no record has yet been turned up of his and Rachel's marriage, it has been several times mentioned that they were man and wife.

Maverick is reported to have lived in Gold Beach for several years and we know that he died June 3, 1880, when he was 57 years old. Tradition says his remains were buried where found—a short way up the trail from Bruce Hole, on the north bank of the Chetco, where a cairn of rock still stands.

Mary, the little girl, of Crescent City, married Robert Walker, on January 27th, 1875 by Seneca Jones, at the house of A. F. Miller (at the Chetco's mouth) with Frank Frame (her brother) and Mary McVay signing as witnesses.

The groom, Robert, was the son of William and Sarah (Gibson) Walker. Robert was born in Canada, April 7, 1844, and had a brother, James Gibson Walker. Their father was a native of England and Sarah of Canada.

Robert came west after serving three years during the Civil War and arrived in Coos County in 1865, later living for some 12 years in Curry County, during which he was sheriff from 1874 to 1878 and ten years later moving to Bandon. The couple had 5 children: Mary L., Robert F., Pearl R., Harry J., and Claire I.

James Gibson Walker, his brother and brother-in-law of the first born of Crescent City, married July 4, '77, Alpha M. Zahniser, by Elder John Mansfield, at Robert Walker's home with Charles Dewey and Walter Sutton as witnesses. James was born in Canada, August 27, 1847 and died November 20, 1917. Alpha was born in Marion County, May 1, 1861 and passed on June 4, 1946. To this couple were born William James, Maude May, Robert Zahniser, Sidney Aaron, and Arthur Gibson

Mary's brother, Frank (Frame) appears to have married Josephine a daughter of Wilson Baine, a native of New Hampshire, who came to California in the very early days. Frank was honored by his Crescent City fellow townsmen, having served as a Justice of Peace in Del Norte County for many years and also having been clerk at the Bayview Hotel. He was also an old time member of the Masonic Lodge there. When he died, in 1941, at Crescent City, Josephine survived to the age of 88 when she passed on October 10, 1949.

Rachel, our little first-born of Crescent City, left Gold Beach in the 70's, dying at the age of 80 on April 11, 1903.

It is unfortunate that records are not on hand of the Frank Frame family, but, as so often happens along the Southern Curry borders, families had greater contact with Del Norte County people than those of Curry. Any scraps of authentic information would be welcome.

Former Smith River Man Dies In Crescent City

Emil August Kamberg, 85, died at Crescent City, on October 10th. He was born in Chicago, August 11, 1870, and when only 8 years old, came to Crescent City, via boat, with his family, from San Francisco. They settled on the Winchuck for several years before moving to Smith River where Emil was always busy, either with farm work, or running a cobbler and barbershop.

On September 26, 1894, he married Alice Nettie, daughter of James A. and Matilda S. Cooley, at Crescent City, and to them were born Eva Ida, who became Mrs. Walter E. Mayes of Crescent City; Amy D., married Aris Vanderhorst, and now lives at Woodson, Ill.; Edgar Theodore, of Martinez, Calif.; Alvin Emil of Eureka; Myrtle Elizabeth, who died May 14, 1926, at Eureka; Dorothy Etta (Haly) of Sacremento, and Oscar of Smith iver.

He is also survived by brothers, Lewis, of Crescent City and William, of Talent, Oregon; and sister, Mrs. Eddie Prueter, of Downers Grove, Illinois.

Funeral services were conducted from the Roeder Chapel, Rev. James Shelton, the pastor, and burial was at Smith River.

Quite a mix-up has been reported in getting out tax statements in Coos Count for the Bandon area. Because of a reported error in the reporting of the Bandon levy, some 14,000 to 15,000 corrections must be made in tax statements already prepared for mailing. If the corrections are not made, according to the story, the Bandon school district will have to get along on the lesser amount they reported.

Why Are Prescriptions Often Written in Latin?

PERHAPS you have noticed that the prescriptions which your physician writes are usually written in Latin. No doubt you have wondered why. Prescriptions are written in Latin because Latin, a never-changing language, is universally employed in medical practice. A Latin prescription written in America or England can be filled in Puerto Rico, Russia, or France, even though the pharmacist may not know a word of English. On the other hand, no matter where your prescriptions may be written, we can fill them promptly.
