The Universal 'Jeep' does hundreds of jobs better and faster... in 2-wheel drive on the highway, or in 4-wheel drive when the going is rough — on or off the road, in all kinds of weather. It hauls heavily loaded trailers, and with power take-off or hydraulic lift operates a wide variety of farm implements and industrial equipment.

Halloween passed by rather quietly this year, thanks to the Lions Club. The organization put on a Trick or Treat Party at the High School that kept the kids on their best behavior, and out of the rain.

The Lions need help from Rotarians like Frenchy Arrell and myself. We judged the Ghost and Goblin parade with the assistance of Alice Brown and Amber Campbell.

Some of the 'lil tykes tried to bribe us with stale popcorn and used Halloween suckers but we held out for more.

Doc McKenna claims this trick or treatin' is commercial blackmail. He said some of the youngsters making the rounds from door to door are just about old enough to vote. Said he, "guy doesn't know if he should offer the boys candy or ask them in for a drink."

Biff Wold, a former Badger star and also a relative of my wife's folks, sent over a book for me to read. The title, "The Hand Painted Chop Suey" is deceiving until you note the author. Roundy Coughlin is a sports writer from the home of the Badgers, Madison, Wisconsin. The choice excerpts from his sports column are also choice murder of the English language. Unique in many ways, the author has attained fame throughout the mid-west and the sports field around the country.

Just to prove to many of you doubting Thomases that Wisconsin did win football games, here are a few excerpts from the book in a style only Roundy could write.

Wisconsin 13, Iowa 0. We beat them in a snowstorm. Saturday we beat them in a rainstorm. We can beat them in the sun any old time. What could be fairer?

Wisconsin 14, Chicago 7. I would walk down to Chicago in a snowstorm just to see Wisconsin get going like they did in that first quarter.

Wisconsin 27, Indiana 2. Not once did Indiana take time out in whole game for a man being hurt — never saw it in a Big Ten game.

Of course, there are a few tales in the book about a few of the losses suffered by U. W. For instance:

Michigan 27, Wisconsin 0 was just the difference between the two teams last Saturday. In three years Wisconsin ain't got inside the Michigan 20-yard line.

Thanks to Bif and Roundy, I'm going to spend some fond memories with that book.
