LIKE TO PLAN A REUNION?

Looking a long way into the future, the PILOT is considering fostering annual reunions, in Brookings, of all former scholars who started, in any grade, in any school between Carpenterville and the state line. This could run in conjunction with some other popular event. Seems like this could be chinked in with the P.T.A.

Thinking on paper, we're mulling over, for instance, a meeting sometime in the summer of 1956, of all such scholars who began their schooling in the area, along with their teachers, in any one year ending in the figure "6", and in 1957, a similar group who started in any year ending in "7", and so on, each group especially cited for meeting "their year" with of course, other former scholars and teachers welcome.

How would you like to meet and compare notes with the kids who were kids when you were a kid, and your teachers?

The above is just a "point of departure" so to speak. We at the PILOT are alert to cooperate. We too, are looking forward to reunions—no, not necessarily Wisconsin. We're already set for '65 in Brookings, and almost annually thereafter.

To start off—and it's never too early—we would welcome hearing from anyone who started in any of the above schools, any year. Tell us what you think of our scheme and how you think it should be run and if you are in touch with any old schoolmates, or get in touch with them, ask them to check in with us, too.

A good many tons of scrap steel have been moving north through town. Several trucks have been seen, heavily loaded with junk, mostly old truck rims.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dial took in the Parade of Barbershop singers at Eugene last weekend.

The James Campbells, of Irvington, California, dropped in for a visit last Saturday, on their old friends, the Bert Kerrs.

Pen Jones and Paul DeBlock made a business trip to Portland, during the past week. Between thick fog and confusing "clover-leaves" they made the run home between 4 and 4:30, according to Ben, (being a.m. and p.m. respectively).

Someone has remarked that even the City Engineer's and other city offices, don't have their own "house numbers."

We find it expedient to write that Mrs. Ira (Katey) Hull actually shot the deer, herself, which we previously reported that she brought home from Eastern Oregon and that Ira did NOT get a deer. (Now Katey, quit pestering us!)
