Harbor News

Notices have been posted for the election of one director for a five-year term by the Harbor Rural Fire Protection District. The election to be held at the Grange Hall on Monday, December 5th, from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m. All registered voters of the area covered by the Fire Protection District who are also land owners are eligible to vote in the election.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Clark of McKinley spent a few days here the first of the week fishing and visiting friends. While here they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whirry. Mr. Clark will be remembered as the builder of the cabins south the Chetco Bridge and across the highway from the Harbor Store that are now owned by Mrs. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Z. Smith have returned home for the winter months after spending the summer near Burns where they operate a fishing and hunting camp about five months of the year. Knowing Harry and Florabel, they have probably been out salmon fishing every day since they arrived.

Miss Susie Peers of San Francisco arrived the middle of last week for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Lois Peterson.

Mrs. Ruth Bathiany enjoyed a weekend visit in Tuelake with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Crawford and her family. She made the trip with friends who went over duck hunting.

Spec. 3/c George Foster left Friday for San Francisco where he will be stationed at the Presidio for the next several months. He had been on a thirty day leave after having served in Korea and Japan for two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Sim Webb have sold their home near Harbor to Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Smith, of Murphy, and have moved to the property they purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rauch on the Stoller sub-division.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dial have as visitors this week, Mrs. Dial's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Zebra of Milton-Freeswater, Oregon.

Friday is a holiday, Veteran's Day, and there will be no school, according to Superintendent of the Schools, D. D. Williams.
