

High School News

During its regular meeting the Tri-M club is studying music theory under the direction of Mr. Dial. The group is also planning an initiation which will be done by the Myrtle Creek Club.

The student body elected Jackie Smith, Dick Berger and Charlotte Jensen as yell leaders and Ann Baldwin and Kay Nichols as song leaders. They will start with the pep club under the supervision of Mr. Dial who is also working with the pep band.

A National Assembly was held when Reverend Spencer brought Kieth Fancher and Don Smith over from the Assembly of God Church to perform for the students. Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Spencer came over also.

The annual invitation to the Drama Festival, held in Arcata at Humboldt State, was received by the Dramatics Club. The Festival is to be held December 2nd and 3rd.

The science, English and music departments of the high school are putting exhibits in the windows downtown in honor of National Education Week.

The Senior class has received their proofs from the portraits taken a few weeks ago. No orders have been placed yet.

A pencil machine has been installed in the office. For five cents, you can get a sharpened pencil, with the name of the school, in gold on it.

Report cards are coming out on Wednesday. You can tell by the expressions of depressions on the faces of the students.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE

The Commercial League started into its second round of bowling Monday night, with four teams taking three games to one loss.

The Brookings Machine Shop won three games, as did Ward's Gas and Appliance, Brookings Plywood and Littrell Parts, over their respective opponents, Kerr Hardware, B & H Logging Supply, Dunning Motors and the Brookings-Harbor Pilot.

Top man for the Machine Shop was Don Neumeyer with a 224 game, and a 538 series, followed by his team-mate Tony Christensen with a 181, 512 series. For Kerr Hardware, Bill Highams, a 185-523 was high.

In the second set Bob Dimmick had a 191-221-553 series for high followed by Archie Hendricks 179-206-552. For the losers Irv Jones 191-187-188-566 was high.

In the third set Neil Martin of Brook-Ply hit a 175-181-171-527 series. While Eddie Otis was high man for the losers with a 450 series.

In the Pilot-Littrell scrap, Fell Campbell with a 169-163-167-499 series was high for the Parts men, while Joe Murphy's 199-468 was high for the Pilot.

The Machine Shop is in first place with 24-12.

Mrs. Jean Erb, and David, left last Thursday for Albany and Silverton for a visit with her family and help prepare for the sister's wedding, to be held in Salem this Saturday.

The Duke of Wellington is quoted as having advised his son never to overlook an opportunity to sit down or to relieve himself.

BETAS HOLD

"RUSH" PARTY

Beta Iota Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi was hostess at another "rush" party held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Alice Putnam for prospective members of the new Silver Anniversary Chapter to be formed here soon.

Mrs. Putnam and Barbara Polard played duets on the organ and piano. Group singing and Bingo games were enjoyed by the honored guests who were: Lorraine Eide, Martha Sayer, Nadine Hyatt, Nancy Pisarek, Iva Hein, Marianne Murphy, Betty Seeley, Gladys Christiansen, Elsie Westron, Cleo Rogers, Pat Dent, Yvonne Cox, Ronnie Ragland, Yolanda Vaughn, Patty Hellrig, Norma Archibald and Yvonne Fox.

Beta Iota Chapter is very fortunate in having with them two illies, their husbands being em-valuable members, Jean Erb and played at the Plywood plant. They Mary Radford, of the Albany brought with them many refreshment ideas for social and service projects.
