For the Gas and Appliance men C. E. Deffenbaugh rolled 179-243-

As the pigskin parade slowly fades from the sports scene Basketball comes to the head of the list. Brookings-Harbor high school will open its season against Eureka December 2. The game will be played on the Bruin's new gym floor. At present there are 16 games scheduled with two games on a home and home series with Arcata pending.

Coach Guthrie has a nucleus of 6 lettermen returning. Those are: Stan Gribble, Ron Bullock, Jerry Anderson, Gary Coats, Ralph Engle, and Denny Graham. Both Engle and Graham are doubtful returnees because of after school employment.

The team, as usual, is playing all its games as an independent team not affiliated with any organized league. Unless the Arcata game materializes, the Bruins will play 5 games away from home during the month of January.

The schedule as it now stands:
 Dec. 2—Eureka here
 Dec. 3—Port Orford here
 Dec. 7—Crescent City there
 Dec. 9—Illinois Valley there
 Dec. 10—Illinois Valley here
 Dec. 14—Crescent City there
 Dec. 27—Myrtle Point here
