

V.F.W. AUXILIARY MAIL CHRISTMAS SEAL LETTERS
 Mrs. Margaret Phillips and her committee of members of the Curry County Auxiliary, VFW, were busy last week getting the Christmas Seal letters addressed and filled ready to be mailed to the residents of this area. That is quite a job when there are over a thousand letters to be sent out.

Dale Travis, of Harbor, is now attending the University of Oregon where he is taking a Liberal Arts course until he figures out what he wants to major in. He is staying at the Alpha Hall, in the John-Straub Building, Eugene.

and is easier handled by an organization than by one or two people.

December first is S-D Day, or Safe Driving Day to the uninformed. We had a good one last year without a scratched fender. This year also could be accident free if everybody did a little thinking while driving. I was going to suggest in this column that each husband keep the car for that date, and let the wife walk, but I'm sure such a suggestion would only get me in trouble with the fair sex, of which my wife is a member, so I won't make it.

Suh a weekend! The new press arrived Friday afternoon, and I wasn't home for three days except maybe to eat and sleep. And a lot of people wanted to conduct business during those couple of days, I hope they didn't feel like we were ignoring them.

Art Knox was handicapped serving as president of Rotary Tuesday noon, without a dinner gong to ring. It seems as though some other club has absounded with it, and are holding it for ransom. At least an advertisement to that effect should appear in the paper next week.

Someone told me that the bank had caved in Sunday. At first I thought the U.S. National Bank, and I ran down to the street to see if I could help pick up any money, but then I found out that they meant the bank behind the Bank. The hill behind Palmers store collapsed. It is owned by Elmer Bankus, and the city should thank Elmer for giving them a hill that d'it. We will have to consume the whole hill won't move down on Chéto Avenue, or Elmer will be out of considerable property.

The Presbyterians are still playing that game that is so popular in town. Which of you guys is Bud, and which is Joe? Actually, by now, people should begin catching on. Our names and pictures are in the paper every week, and we have been in town almost a year and a half. We don't look too much alike. We spell our names

Harbor News

Mr. and Mrs. Verdon Wheeler have received word of the birth of a daughter, Shawn Renee, to Mrs. Wheeler's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oviatt of Alturas, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Oviatt are former residents.

W. W. Smith, that perambulating deputy sheriff has returned from another trip, this time one that took him to Pomona, California, and LaGrande, Oregon and Everett, Washington, to visit his three children and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gardner, Harold and Elmer Gardner returned the latter part of last week from an unsuccessful elk hunt in Eastern Oregon. They report that the snow was so deep and the mercury went down to below zero so that their eggs cracked and it was cold, so they came home to thaw out.

Mrs. Grace Boel returned last week from a trip to Los Angeles to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Weigel are on a trip which will take them to Spokane, Washington, and several other places when they are visiting relatives and friends for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cate made a trip to Portland recently to bring their daughter home after she had been receiving medical treatment at the Shrine Hospital. They report that Verle Brey is still in the hospital in Eugene undergoing medical tests to find out what is the cause of his illness. Mrs. Brey is staying in Eugene while he is there.

Dick McGuiness is home on furlough from Ft. Lewis, Washington. He will return on November 30th to his post.
