WINCHUCK 4-H LIVESTOCK CLUB HOLDS AWARD NIGHT
The Winchuck 4-H Livestock Club held a special meeting the evening of November 18th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crump for the purpose of presenting the members and leaders with their yearly pins and certificate which they receive for the completion of their projects.

W. H. Hawkins, of Gold Beach County Extension Agent, was in charge of the 4-H work, attended the meeting and made the presentations. He complimented the club on its outstanding work and the honors the club members have received during the past year. The club received a certificate award for a 100 percent completion of the projects the members started.

The two leaders, Mrs. Irene Crump and Mrs. Thelma Pettegrew each received their three year leadership pins. The members received the following awards: Janet Crump, a Junior Leadership pin and a seven year award; Mervin Pettegrew and Dale Crump each were given a five year award; Eddie Oar, Helen Lucas, and Richard Donnelly each had a three year award given them. Richard Bomhoff, a second year award and James Donnelly, a one year award. The Certificates and pins which made up the awards are given by the First National Bank of Portland.

Mrs. Crump and Janet served refreshments of cookies, punch, and coffee to the group. The parents present the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Crump, Mr. and Mrs. James Donnelly, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Pettegrew, Mrs. Walter Bomhoff and Mrs. Leo Lucas.

Commercial League Reports

Monday nights league was a runaway for three teams as they won four games and again stretched the league standings apart. Brookings Machine Shop won four games over Littrell Parts to maintain their first place, standings in the league, while the Partsmen gave them a battle for the first two games with the games being decided in the last frame. For the winning Machine Men Jess Hoagland was high man with a 535 series, and was followed by Mack Malcolm with a 531 series and Tony Christensen contributed a 524 series.

For the losing Parts Men, Bud McCourt was high man with a 536 series and was followed by Jerry Hahn with a 491 series.

In the second set of the evening, B & H Logging made it a clean sweep over the Brookings-Harbor Pilots to maintain their second place standing in the league. For the winning Loggers Irv Jones rolled a 555 series to lead the way. He was also high man for the evening. Homer Haggerty rolled a 528 series in helping the wins, and Ray Gadberry contributed a 520 series.

For the losing Pilots, Joe Murphy was again high man with a 513 series and was followed by teammate Art Guthrie with a 485 series.

In the third set of the evening Wards Gas and Appliance also made it a clean sweep over the Brookings Plywood team. The clean sweep kept the Gas men in the third place in the standings within one game of second place. For the winning Gas Men Bob Dimmick lead the way with a 541 series, and was followed by Ed Edson with a 532 series.

For the losing Plywood men, Hank Houvila was high man with a 490 series and was followed by Odom Ford who rolled a 476 series.

In the fourth set of the evening Dunning Motors won three games while Kerr Hardware won one game. For the winning Motor Men Jim Preston led the way with a 479 series and was followed by Buzz Stewart with a 470 series.

For the losing Hardware men Bob Rettke was high man with a 460 series and was followed by Bill Higham with a 441 series.
