MRS. ACKLEY'S NOTES

A successful Evangelistic campaign came to a close Wednesday evening. Mr. Gaverluk is a real artist in chalk drawings and the pictures he drew every night told the story of the Bible. Mrs. Gaverluk is a talented soloist. Thursday evening was a sweetheart night, and corsages were presented to Mrs. T. H. Dooley, as Mr. and Mrs. Dooley had been married fifty-one years and they were the oldest of the "Sweethearts" present. Mrs. Frank Fanger was the Sweetheart who came the furthest as Mr. and Mrs. Fanger live eight miles up the Chetco River. Pat Herman was the newest Sweetheart as her engagement to Walter Garvin was recently announced.

Mr. and Mrs. George Magley, of Sumner, Washington, spent several days, this past week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sadler.

Cards have been received from Mrs. Palm Stout, who is travelling in the Near East. She was recently in Persia and wrote that the old mosques and the churches were lovely but the people were poor, ill-clothed, and poorly fed. Her son, Bobby, will fly to Hong Kong and have Christmas there with his mother, both returning to the U.S. early in the year.

Mrs. Vernon Hanscam and Mrs. E. Erb were hostesses for the regular meeting, Thursday, of the Baptist Missionary Society. Mrs. Sadler was in charge of the program.

SINGING BANTYS

Bill Martineau has lost faith in his qualifications as a live stock judge. Last Fall he got a herd of banty chickens and their mamma from Eva Lee Long. Didn't want to overstock his range so shipped East his surplus, keeping, he thought, a seed stand of three females and a male. Anyhow, what gripes Bill is that three of his herd are singers and the little pullet don't hardly have time to snatch a meal.

DUCK FEED

Mr. and Mrs. Montie Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pruitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fox enjoyed a feed of mallard duck at the Cliff House, this past weekend. Montie supplied the duck from his cache acquired over around Klamath Falls, this past hunting season.
