FIRST REUNION SINCE 1917

Chris Dyzik dropped into the PILOT office, Monday, and announced he was on the battleship NEW HAMPSHIRE, in 1917, then being a seaman. He discussed mutual acquaintances with M. S. Brainard, who was on the same ship, at the same time. Neither had seen the other since and as there were over 1,000 men in the crew, didn't remember each other. Dyzik is now on reserve from the service, as a Chief Warrant Officer and with his family lives not too far from Bill Hynes, also through with many years' Naval Service.
 Dyzik left the NEW HAMPSHIRE, in 1917, to go into destroyers overseas, and Brainard left about the same time, being transferred to Naval Aviation, overseas.

THAT SCOUT BUILDING

Mike Page dropped in to say he has great hopes in the public, and especially the organizations of the town, will get down to business on the Scout Building. Mike says, thanks to the friends of Scouting, the concrete blocks are all paid for but the bill to Horton Brothers, who layed them.

There is one point, Mike says, where there is considerable misunderstanding and might be holding people out and that is the matter of the Odd Fellows sponsorship of the deal. Mike says—and others back him up, that, in the first place the Scouts would have nothing to do with the property and the Odd Fellows had to take title to it but—and this is a very large but, according to the sponsors: in case the Scouts should fold up here it is in the deed that the title to the property revert to Mr. Ward King, the ORIGINAL donor of the property. It WOULD NOT revert to the Odd Fellows.

NEW 4-H's

A new 4-H Club has been formed in Brookings. The name of it is the Cut and Sew Girls. The meetings will be held at the home of Mrs. Muriel Cragg, who is the Club Advisor.

At the first meeting, the group elected Barbara Dalstrom as President; Marvela Murphy as Vice-President; and Jasquie Kindel as Secretary. Mary Lee Hein was elected News Reporter and Jackie Botzek as the Refreshment Chairman.

Pattie Jo Cragg let the girls in the -H Pledge and yells. The next meeting will be held January 12th.

THEY WILL BE MISSED

Two much-respected ranchers of many long years standing in Curry County, have passed from among us. They will sincerely be missed. John Fitzhugh Farrier, 58, died suddenly on his Sixes River ranch and was buried at Denmark. Fred Hofess, age 87, had ranched on Floras Creek since 1894, and died there, on November 30, and was also buried at Denmark.

CHRISTMAS MUSIC

The choir of the Presbyterian Church will be augmented by members of the Chetco Choral Club on Sunday, December 18th, in the presentation of Christmas music at the 11 a.m. worship service. Rev. Henry Ostermeier, minister, reports that two beautiful numbers, "The Song of the Angels" and "The Holy City" will be presented by the combined group. Soloists will be Mrs. Albert Mincer, Mrs. Daniel Styers, and Mrs. Joseph Kanick. Mrs. Lee Rice is director of both groups. A message, timely to the season, will be presented by Rev. H. M. Ostermeier.
