

Women's Rest Periods
The State Bureau of Labor answers an inquiry regarding rest time for women employees in retail stores saying they should be given on the basis of ten minutes for four hours' of working time or major fraction thereof. "Whenever feasible the rest break should be in the middle of the work period but that is not the absolute rule. If less than a 2 1/4 hours of the day's work comes in the morning, the rest period may go into a 20-

U.S. National's New Bank
The U.S. National Bank announces their plans to build an L-shaped branch building in Grants Pass, to cost $200,000. The building will be ready for occupancy in August of 1956. The site will be at 6th and Eye Streets, now occupied by the Schmidt Grocery and the Trimble blacksmith shop.

COPY DEADLINE
We, at the PILOT Office, again urge all our advertisers to have their "COPY" in our hands by 4 a.m. TUESDAY evening. Short Classified ads MAY be accepted up to noon, Wednesday.

PUSSY WILLOWS YET!
Mrs. Bonnie Leming gathered a whole bunch of fat Pussy Willows, up by the school house, which really isn't much to write of hereabouts, come this time of the year.

BIRTHDAYS —
Two of our longer-time residents who are usually cheated out of having their birthdays confused with the holidays are Verne Cross and Gladys Kindell—Vern's on the 27th and Gladys' on the 29th of December
