WHY PAY MORE — When You Can Get The Best For Less

MRS. ACKLEY'S NOTES — Wm. J. Collis returned this week from Southern California, where he visited relatives and friends.

D. D. Williams, superintendent of the Brookings schools, made a school business trip to Portland and Salem this past week. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dial attended a music conference in Eugene.

The Baptist Church Choir will practice at 8, Friday evening, instead of the regular Thursday practice as several of the members will attend the Community Concert at Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kendall and daughter, returned recently from several weeks visit with relatives in Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lewis made a business trip to Portland this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hendricks, and daughter Nancy, were in Portland on business, this past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young have purchase done of the houses in the Teresa Tract.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pierce attended the Lyle Redfield funeral, last Tuesday, in Klamath Falls.

Word has been received from Mrs. Webb Hubbard and Mr. Charles Grayson, presently at Santa Mexico, where they are enjoying sun bathing and plan to soon go on to Guadalajara, for a longer stay.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The Baptist Women's Missionary Society met Thursday, January 20th, at Mrs. Loyd Weeks, with eleven attending. The program was in charge of Mrs. Helen, an American Indian. The Rev. Calvin gave an interesting talk about the lovely Indians and how they gathered a great deal of their material in this vicinity. A basket, and other articles were passed around and much admired. Ethel Moore read an article on love gift boxes and what that money is used for.

The quarterly business meeting of the Brookings Baptist Church was held Wednesday evening when a potluck supper was served.

It is said a foreign, pygmy breed of cars are now obtainable at certain Brookings drug and Jewelry counters.
