

HARBOR NEWS —

The Harbor Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Ruby Harvey Friday afternoon, with Polly Clendenin, Eunice Wollam and Mrs. Harvey as hostesses. After the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed with the hostesses serving refreshments. The February meeting will be held either at the home of Mrs. Ruth Bathiany or Mrs. Ethel Olsen.

Relatives have received the announcement telling of the marriage of Sp 3 George Foster to Miss Jacquelyn Lee Krizan of Oakland, at Reno on January 8th. Mr. Foster is a Harbor man, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Foster, who now lives in Wimer. He is in the Army and stationed at the Presidio in San Francisco after serving in Japan and Korea for two years. A buffet supper is being given in their honor of the Non-Commissioned Officers club at the Presidio this Sunday afternoon. Kenneth Fielder was home last week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Fielder. He was on his way from San Diego where he was a machinist mate on the Partigan, and is being transferred to the carrier Roosevelt at Bremerton. The Roosevelt is scheduled to sail for the East Coast soon, and will make a European tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shrader Sr. returned home Thursday after visiting since the middle of December with their sons, Paul and Jim Shrader and their families in Los Angeles. While there, they were taken to Tijuana, Disneyland and the Knott Berry Farm. Coming home on the bus, they were held up at Laytonville by the slide for four hours and had to stay over at Eureka as they missed the bus north, from there.

A/3c and Mrs. Gene Howell of Tacoma visited for a few hours at the home of their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kennedy Wednesday. They were on their wedding trip as they were married the previous Sunday, on Vashon Island, Washington. Mr. Hallowell will receive his discharge from the Air Force in

About sixty Chetco grangers and their families gathered at the Grange Hall Sunday afternoon for a dinner to celebrate their new kitchen being put in use for the first time last week. Mrs. Alma Johnson, Home Economics Chairman and her group served a ham and meat loaf dinner to the group. The women were very appreciative of the convenience of the new kitchen gives them, and it makes serving a dinner much easier.

This Friday evening, a class of about twenty candidates will be given the first two degrees by the regular officers of the Grange. They will receive the Third and Fourth Degrees at the February 17th meeting from the ladies degree team.

More work remains to be done on the kitchen. Curt Waldien gave the redwood cabinets another coat of paint Tuesday, and Clyde Braynard and Bob Chambers worked on putting a footing around the front of the hall, so that cement blocks can be put in for a foundation.

about six months. Mrs. Ruth Bathiany arrived home Tuesday after visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Crawford, in Tulelake, for about six weeks. She also visited friends in Klamath Falls, her former home town.

Three U. S. Cruisers were noted on the horizon, Saturday, one large one and two escort vessels. It is good to know our West Coast is also watched over.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Shannon and family have rented the beach home of Col Lee Rice, and are enjoying the wonderful view of the ocean.

Mrs. Mary Fischer entertained recently, at her new home at State Line, in the form of a party honoring Mrs. Vernon Hancam, past matron of the Eastern Star Chapter, and her 1955 officers.

The Brookings-Harbor Choral Club will sing Thursday, at the regular meeting of the P.T.A.

REPORT SOLICITORS ON READING AIDS

School authorities report that individuals were in this area soliciting business as reading specialists who will help a child to read.

Superintendent of Schools, D. D. Williams reports that the school has not, and will not, sanction such solicitation. The same holds true for magazine salesmen, who represent, supposedly, the schools. Williams said the schools were not consulted or asked about the reading solicitors.

FLOSSIE IS BACK —

Mrs. Al Buchanan opened her Coffee and bar, Friday morning, following a long closure due to illness and death in the family, and Al's troubles. Al had another long operation on his leg and is slowly improving.

The Young People of the Baptist Church will sponsor the Second Good Fellowship meeting, Sunday evening, February 5th. Refreshments will be served and friends of the Church are welcome.

Rev. Nick Neufeldt, former pastor of the Community Church was a visitor in Brookings for several days this past week. The family home is now in Sacramento, California.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lewis are leaving this week to make their home in Portland, where they have recently purchased a new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pierce returned Saturday, from Klamath Falls where they have been visiting a son.

VOTERS NOTICE
The City of Brookings has been divided in two Precincts with Highway 101 as the dividing line as follows:
BROOKINGS PRECINCT NO. 1 — All residents on the oceanside of Highway 101 and between the Chetco River and the city limit boundary on the North of Brookings.
BROOKINGS PRECINCT NO. 2 — All residents on the Easterly side of Highway 101 and between the Chetco River and city limit boundary on the North of Brookings.
FERRELO PRECINCT — All residents not residing within the city limits of Brookings and North of the Chetco River. (See Map)

The registered voters residing in these Precincts should notify Oleta A. Walker, County Clerk, Gold Beach at once, stating their precinct, so their names will be listed in the proper poll book.
If not registered, you can register with Mrs. Mae Smith, City Recorder of Brookings and official Registrar for these Precincts or at the County Clerk's office in Gold Beach.
