HARBOR NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew (Happy) Hoffeldt are riding around in an air conditioned car these days. Last Wednesday when Mr. Hoffeldt had parked their Ford Station Wagon at the Thompson Lumber Company, where he was working, a pile of 2 by 12s toppled over onto the hood of the car, pushing the car backwards and pulverizing the windshield. Except for a battered air cleaner, the engine was undamaged, but the hood and the front of her daughter, Mrs. Shirley Hutman, for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Hutman and son Mike accompanied her home for a few days visit here. Mrs. Wade Henderer and son, Bobby, plan to return to their home in Elkton Friday after enjoying a weeks visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Weigel. Mrs. Claude Clayton returned home Thursday after visiting in Cupertino, California, at the home of her daughter for a couple of weeks.

A pedigree Border Collie pup was received by Leo Lucas last week from the French Camp, near Stockton, California, the trip being made by express. Due to the padlocking of the freight company in Crescent City, which handled the express shipments, the arrival of the puppy was delayed. When she did reach Harbor, her crate was on the porch of the Post Office for a few hours before Mr. Lucas could pick her up, and everyone, especially the children, enjoyed stopping and visiting with the friendly animal.

A group of bulb growers attended the open house held at Oregon State College last week to show the results of the experiments the experts at the college have been carrying on with Easter Lily bulbs. The open house lasted two days. Among those who were at Corvallis for the open house were Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe, Mr. and Mrs. Berger Dahlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wollam, Alan Woodruff, Roger Oliver, E. L. Rigdon, Bob Stanhurst, A. K. and Bob Hastings and N. V. Strommen from Brookings and Harbor; and Mr. and Mrs. Samuelson, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Burroughs and Joe Rose of Smith River. There will be a potluck dinner for the members of the Chetco Grange this Friday evening, with everyone asked to be at the hall with their food by 6:00 o'clock so that the dinner can get underway by 6:30. The regular officers will put on the first and second degrees at the meeting that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Carson and Mrs. E. L. Carson drove to Portland last weekend to bring the Carson's young son Dennis home after he had received medical care at a hospital there. Thomas Carson, who has been visiting in Portland at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ray LaFontaine returned with the group. His wife remained in Portland for further medical treatment, but he reports that she is feeling some better now than she did before going north.

Mrs. Roger Oliver returned home last week after visiting in San Francisco at the home of

For The Best Slogan
For Our Service Department!

The present-day automobile is a highly technical piece of mechanism. The day of monkey wrenching is over. Skilled technicians are a must if present day cars are to give the best performance

Our mechanics are trained—School every week, Special Films and Lectures, Our shop is equipped with special tools, equipment and also expensive testing machines.

Now we would like to have a slogan which would depict the m-a-n-y qualifications of our Service Department.

In not over 10 Words, send us your ideas, something like, "Brookings Automotive Clinic, We Guarantee to Cure the Patient."

No Strings, No Obligations, Nothing to Buy. We reserve the right to be sole judges. If your slogan is adopted, it will be used in our advertising — CONTEST CLOSES MAY 15th.
