

SCOUT NEWS —

A Court of Honor for Troop 32 will be held in the grade school gym next Monday evening, and all Scouts are asked to bring their parents. Visitors, of course, will be welcome. At the court, several awards will be made.

Last Monday night Scout Executive Virgil Clark gave the troop signs for them to post, reminding people to vote, this being one of the Yearly Good Turns to which all Scouts are committed.

Scout Ransom recently qualified for his swimming award by covering the fifty yards in Smith River. The water was pretty cold.

Plans are being made for a huge Scout Parade when the new building is ready for use. Work on that is progressing nicely and more workers are needed. Anyone interested, see Mike Page, Roy Weideman or Virgil Clark.

KING'S TEENS HONORED — The King's Teens were honored to have with them Friday night, Miss Palmer, a missionary from Ethiopia. She gave a talk on the customs and way of life of the various tribes in Ethiopia. Miss Palmer is originally from Canada but is planning on her return to Ethiopia within the next few months.

CARPENTERVILLE NEWS — Ray Passley returned home Wednesday evening after making a plane trip to Oklahoma to visit his father, who is quite ill. Pat Cox's mother stayed with Helen while Ray was gone.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Carpenter and son, Danny, were down from Port Orford, Sunday, visiting friends and relatives here. Brother Colegrove took his trailer house, boat, jeep pickup, fishing gear, etc., up Rogue River Thursday and spent two days fishing. Charles Carpenter and Rex Nichols helped him move his equipment up the river.

Mrs. Neva Christensen returned home after spending five days visiting friends down south. Norm stayed home and batched. Delmar Colegrove and Warren McNeely are busy marking the lambs.

Jerry Carpenter and Terry Timeus attended the "Hoot-Owl" show in Gold Beach, Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. Rex Nickles and Pat Petra went to Ophir Wednesday, where Rex bought a jeep from Ed Wooley.

If you hear something in the woods these days that sounds like a bear, think nothing of it. It is only Leona Nickles and Dot Petre picking ferns.

Mrs. Ralph Moore is now home after spending the last week in Seaside Hospital with a back injury. She is now convalescing under the care of Dr. Ronniger.
