30 CARLOADS OF ROCKHOUNDS MAKE TRIP

Over thirty carloads of Rockhounds made the trip to the Alt-house Creek area, near Holland, Oregon last Sunday in quest of the jade-like material available in the creek bed and old mine tailings. Members from the Eureka, Crescent City and Brookings Mineral Clubs all reported good hunting and a fine day. Those making the trip from the Mt. Emily Gem and Mineral Club were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gold-izen, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Chapman, Art Pierce, Arthur Bollinger, Sue Jackson, Art Abbott, Gertrude Penn and the Charles Hoffman family.

At the recent regular Club meeting, plans were taking final shape for the coming Gem Show, in June. A special meeting was scheduled for Friday, April 27th at the Hoffman home in Harbor for the purpose of sorting and sacking the grab bag material. Any member with rock material

4-H CLUB NEWS

The Winchuck Livestock 4-H Club held their second meeting of the year at the Pettegrew home Friday, April 20th. Club members discussed projects for the year, enrollment cards were signed and partially filled out, and summer applications were reported to have been sent in to the County Agent's office.

The first meeting of the 4-H Club had been held in the Crump home the week before at which time the Club officers for the year were elected.

Eddie Oar was elected president; Richard Bomhoff, vice-president; Richard Donnelly, secretary; Mervin Pettegrew, reporter; James Donnelly, song leader; Helen Lucas and Johnny Donnelly, yell leaders. Refreshments were served after the meetings.
