Kerrs Win Second Half

The last night of league bowling was a thriller to the finish as the battle for first place went down to the last frame of the last game. The battle between the league leading Kerr Hardware team and the challenging B & H Logging Supply team was a dream match as the Loggers won the first two games and the final game would decide position for the playoff. The tension grew as they approached the final frame and all ten bowlers were putting everything they had on the ball. The Hardware Men finally edged out the victors and thus won the position to play the Brookings Machiners for the league championship.

For the winner of the series, the Loggers, Irv Jones led the way with 555 pins and was closely followed by C. E. Defenbaugh with 545 and Ray Gadberr with 522 pins. For the losing Hardware men, Bill Higham led the way with 547 pins and Bud Lowe followed with 477 pins. In the second set of the evening, the Brookings Machine Shop and the Brookings Plywood split their series, two and two. For the Machiners, which ended up in third place, Jesse Hoagland and Tony Christensen tied with 538 pins and Mack Malcolm followed with 525 pins. For the Plywood men, Neil Martin led the way with 538 pins and was followed by Hank Houvila with 493 pins. In the third set of the evening, the Wards Gas and Appliance team won three games and lost one to the Brookings-Harbor Pilots. For the winning Gas Men Les Dimmick led the way with 532 pins and Warg Goldsberry followed with 524 pins. For the losing Pilots, Vic Yahr turned in 508 pins and Jim Harper 458 pins. In the final set of the evening, the Littrell Parts team made it a clean sweep over the Dunning Motors team. For the winning Parts Men, Tiny Drake set the fast pace and led the way with 572 pins, which was good enough to take high series for the evening. He was followed by Bud McCourt with 514 pins. For the losing Motor Men, Les Twoby led the way with 424 pins and Roy Pollard followed with 394 pins.

Hardtop Races To Begin Soon

Hardtop, Jalopy and Midget Races will commence at the Ocean Drive-In track at Crescent City on May 13th with plenty of cars on hand to provide thrills. It was announced this week by James Harris who has leased the track from Art Grenfeld and Gus Fowler. Harris said the races would be held here and at Redwood Acres, Eureka, on alternate Sundays with the Humbolt events starting May 20th. Promising that there would be no shortage of cars, he nevertheless suggested additional entrants get their cars in shape and list them with Gus Fowler at the Drive-In immediately. Mrs. Roy Weideman had a party of friends in to help celebrate her husband's birthday.

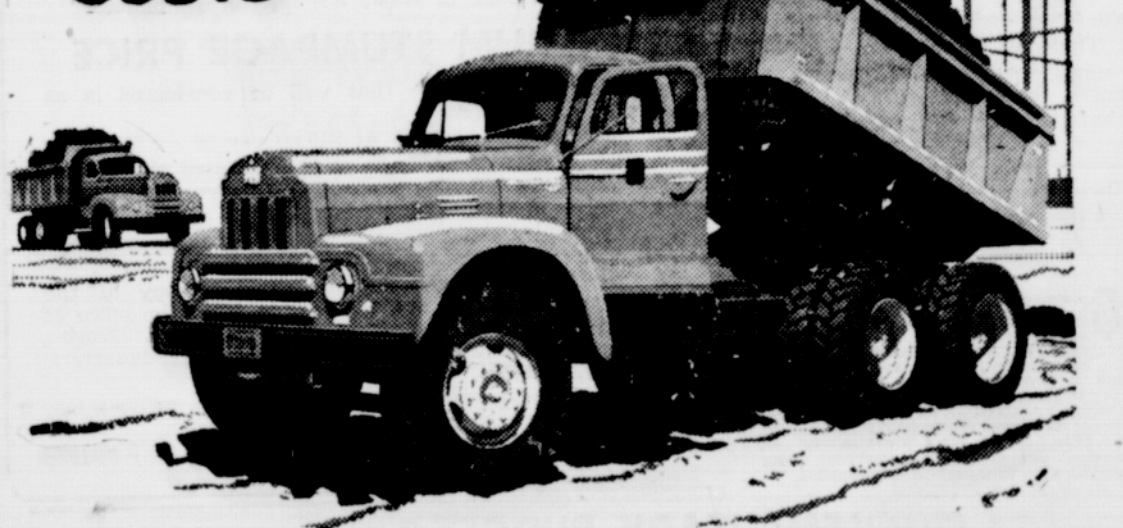

Mr. and Mrs. James Riggs, of Astoria, visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Jagers, his uncle and aunt, and also other relatives in the vicinity. Keith Weeks, of Clarkston, Washington, visited his father, Lloyd, here, this past week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wersch returned this past week, from a trip to Portland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (FHTNC) — Ruth J. O'Holleran receives the insignia of her new rank upon being promoted to Woman Marine Captain at the Headquarters of the 12th Marine Corps Reserve and Recruitment District, San Francisco, California.
