

THESE PEOPLE LIVE HERE . . .

This is the 15th of a 26-weekly series of brief biographies of the people who conduct business of this area. Their names appear in the Ad-Rime Directory on this issue of the Pilot.

MINCER'S JEWELRY has been operated by a new owner since February 22nd of this year. "The King Is Dead, Long Live THE King" is the cheer that describes the continuity of the empire. So with Mincer's Jewelry, Mrs. Mincer sold and Lee and Anna Willoughby carry on.

Willoughby is a veteran jeweler of 20 years. He brought his family here from Cody, Wyoming where he had operated his own store for 4 years before selling out late last fall. Besides working in jewelry stores he had been in the business 11 years in the Newport Beach area of Southern California.

He does not hesitate to invite business requiring an expert in the field. Prior to the long years of experience he had a background of technical education. He first attended the University of Wyoming and finished off with a technical course of 2 years at Bradley Institute in Peoria, Illinois.

The Willoughbys have three children; the little boss Louise of just 1 year. Douglas is in the 8th grade and Kath'ene a freshman in high school. They hit Brookings somewhat by chance. They drove some friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tantare here, after selling out in Cody, Wyo. They had received a Chamber of Commerce brochure and decided to look things over. They didn't find anything wrong with the C of C's description of the place and when they found what they wanted for sale, they decided to plant their feet here to stay. "Quite a relief from the 40 degrees below in Wyoming" Mr. Willoughby is quoted as saying.

The Mincer's Jewelry store was started from scratch by Mrs. Virginia Mincer in March of 1952. Albert Mincer is one of the original stockholders in the Brookings Plywood Corporation. Mrs. Mincer is one of those women so typical of modern American housewives. She has ability and a taste of business experience and yet retains the desire, most of all, to make a home.

up with the times in that field. They like Brookings, have their home here and can think of nothing else but staying here and working here.

BEAVER STATE LODGE MOTEL at the South end of town is a 10 unit modern court with car ports. James E. and Irene Koeller purchased the court last November. Mrs. Koeller is the principal one around there because Mr. Koeller is pretty well engaged at the Koeller Cabinet Shop at Wharf and King Streets.

The Koellers came to Brookings December 9, 1945 and he opened the cabinet shop early in 1956. He had been foreman of cabin work for the Navy at Willamette Iron and Steel for a number of years.

The couple have an 11 year old daughter, Kathleen Ann, in the grade school. She gets to help her mother around the court after school.

MILT'S RICHFIELD SERVICE

VICE in South Harbor was taken over last September by a native of the area, Milton E. Potocnick. He is a graduate of the Class of 1941. Following his discharge from the Navy in 1946 he drove truck for the South Coast Lumber Co. He says he likes being in business for himself very much.

His wife is the former Kathleen Rindfleisch. Her parents owned the location now occupied by Hewitt's Anchorage at the North approach to the Chetco bridge. They have one daughter a year and a half old.

"Smack in the midst of the Nation's biggest business boom, many Americans had to go out and borrow money to meet today's federal income tax deadline." - Wall Street Journal.

VOTES FOR "DON"

With Don Cameron running for the state senate, from Josephine county, chances are there will be some in other surrounding counties who would like to cast absentee ballots.

GIRL SCOUTS?

All who are interested in the formation of a Girl Scout outfit are asked to be at the organizational meeting, to be held in the VFW Hall, at 2 p.m. Wednesday May 16th. Anyone wishing to help with the project are asked to call Mrs. Fulleton, 3671, or at 750 Valley Street. Girls between the ages of 7 and 18 are eligible and a revival of the movement should attract many of them, especially as they may share the new building put up for the Boy Scouts.

HARBOR COMMUNITY CLUB

Twenty were present at the last meeting of the Harbor Community Club (which occurred at the home of Mrs. Erma Rice. Mrs. Mattie Smalley, of Los Angeles was a guest. After a business meeting and games, the hostesses, Hulda Gardner, Melita Kampf and Bertha Moore served. The next meeting will be a pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Scopec.

TIOGA AGAIN

The Tioga Hotel, in downtown Coos Bay, is in difficulties again. The hostelry is now a receivership brought about through various suits against it. For many years the structure sat as a mere shell, due to one thing and then another, and was finally completed just after the last war. It is still being operated as a hotel.

SALMON DERBY

Action by the last State Legislature washed out Astoria's

world famous salmon derby that had attracted thousands of the sport fishermen. The Astoria Regatta Association has extended a rather weak invitation to folks to come and fish, anyhow, but the kick has been eliminated.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bunnell, of Brookings, announce the engagement of their daughter, Joyce, to Davy J. Crockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett, of Harbor. The wedding is planned for late summer.

THE LAW STEPS IN

What could have been a popular side show to the forthcoming Lions boat races has been abandoned because it might be interpreted as a violation of the lottery law. It involved a free-for-all boat race between the Upper and lower Chetco bridges and was being considered by the VFW.
