HARBOR
For the first in history the Chetco Precinct had more Democrat voters than Republican, the actual count being one hundred fifty Democrats and one hundred forty six Republicans. The counting board realized that there were plenty of voters as they finished their counting at 6:30... a.m. Saturday morning.

The Grand Jury this year is composed of six men from the southern part of the county and the seventh member bring a Wedderburn man. Leo Lucas is the Foreman of the Grand Jury and Vernon Hanscam the secretary. Other members from this end of the county include Roy Stringer, Ed Oar, Charles Behee and Henry Payne. One wouldn't blame the northern part of the county for protesting the lack of any member from that area.

Mrs. Leonard Hodges (Evelyn Payne) was rushed to the Seaside hospital early Thursday morning for an emergency appendectomy. She was able to be brought home the next day.

Mrs. L. G. Stafford and Mr. Wissinger brought Mr. Stafford home last week from the Portland Sanitarium where he had been receiving treatment. He is still in a serious condition and requires constant nursing.

W. W. (Pete) Chapman arrived last week from Farmington, New Mexico and is making an extended visit with his nephew, Sonny Chapman and family. The group and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Phillips spent the week end camping on the upper Chetco.

Carroll Reekman and Willis Hicks of Ashland spent the week end at the home of Mr. Reekman's mother, Mrs. Milton Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Garrett are back for a few weeks after being in Lakeview for a month.

Miss Connie Bordwell returned home the first of the week after being on duty with the Navy for a few weeks. She was a member of a team of Naval Wave officers which visited the various universities and colleges in the Northwest on a Wave Officer recruitment mission. She says that it seems good to be back, and we imagine that Pete Lesmeister is glad to have his efficient aide back on the job.

TOM TOLMAN VISITS
The many local friends and relatives of Tom Tolman welcomed him here last week end when he visited at his father's home. Tom, who was very badly injured in a woods accident, had to shift occupations and is now book-keeping in a Newport hospital.

The Girls' Chorus under the direction of Mr. Clarence Dial visited the Rotary on Tuesday morning and sang for the Rotarians.

The Seniors had their Annual Skip Day, Friday the 18th. Everyone told of the enjoyable time they had, swimming and roller skating in Ashland. Mr. Carl Harrison and Mrs. Catherine Doherty accompanied the group with Mr. John Peffley as bus driver.

***
Mrs. Petra Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Art Pierce had Sunday dinner with the D. D. Williams family.

***
A pleasant evening was experienced as Mr. and Mrs. Wes Kindle entertained the D. D. Williams family with dinner at the North 40 Lodge. They attended the Square Dance afterward.

ELVIN MEEK HOME
Elvin R. Meek, who recently underwent surgery at Providence hospital, Portland, is back at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Meek, recuperating.

OLD NEIGHBORS LEAVE
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kinch, whose home up the Chetco was burned to the ground a couple of months ago, have bought a place at 1230 N. W. Prospect, Grants Pass, to which they have moved.

JENSONS TREE FARM
Of the seven new west coast tree farms, comprising 3,211 acres reported to the Industrial Forestry Association, one is listed as being that of Charles R. Jensen, Langlois, in Curry county.

COPCO POWER OFF
Relocation of Copco lines in preparation for the highway realignment at Wilson Creek, in Del Norte county and line repairs and improvements elsewhere in the county has caused the current to be shut off last Sunday. The job is being done by the 24 company employees of California helped by some 50 additional from Oregon.
