Couple Celebrates 63rd Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Scott celebrated their sixty-third wedding anniversary while visiting at the home of their son, Ralph, of Harbor.

Emma Lambert and Franklin were married May 15, 1894, at the home of Rev. Anderson, in Covela, California, and they now live at Ft. Bragg.

Mr. Scott was born in Edgar, County, Illinois, in 1859, and during the Civil War his parents moved to Kansas where he lived until '94. Mrs. Scott was born in Nebraska in 1877, and at the age of 3 came with her parents who homesteaded on Timbered Ridge where her future husband also took up the last pre-emption claim. The couple met and married there. Mr. Scott will celebrate his 97th birthday on June 18th and is still active and alert and is always ready to recall the old days.

The anniversary was celebrated at the Harbor home of their son and daughter-in-law, where they were congratulated and were recipients of many cards and gifts from their many old time friends and neighbors.

Seven children were born to the couple, surviving of which, besides Ralph, are son Joe, of Covela; and daughter, Mrs. Pearl Cramwell of Ukiah.

HUSBANDS, TAKE WARNING

Leave the family axe alone! Hacking breakfast wood, Wednesday morning, Lloyd Weeks clipped off the end of one of his best thumbs. Doctor Brown basted it back on and Lloyd will be doing a stretch of wondering if it "takes."

SMOKE JUMPERS TRAIN —

This week, training of smoke jumpers started at Seats Field, near the Illinois Valley airport. By June 18th it is expected there will be 36 men available, of which 15 have had previous parachuting experience and the balance, qualified recruits. The men, available for work quite all over the west, will be employed in fire suppression and are especially valuable in attacking a fire while it is still small. Formerly, men had to hike, sometimes great distances over rugged terrain, to "hit" a fire which had, by that time, got beyond their effective work.
