

QUEEN'S BALL REPORT GIVEN

The annual Queen's Ball, sponsored by the Chetco Grange, held in their hall last Saturday evening, was a fitting honor for the Royal Court. Before the dancing got underway, photos of the young ladies, all beautifully attired, were made by the Strong Studio. Corsages and boutonniers were presented to the Queen and her Court, courtesy of Dick's Richfield and Gould's Shoe Store. Then, everyone young or younger enjoyed the music of Red Bright and his orchestra, and joined in the dancing.

Refreshments were handy, all evening, served by the ladies of the Home Economics division of the Grange, and there were three hourly door prize drawings, the first, courtesy of Frank's Pharmacy, being won by no other than Brookings' mayor, Roy Brimm.

Other prizes, donated by the following, were won as recorded here:

Vern's Pastry, (not known); Flossy's Buzzy Bee, Dennis Graham; Hanscam's Center, by Glenda Keffer; Larry's Chetco Store, Shirley Hewitt; Eva Lee's
