

HARBOR NEWS

At the last meeting of Chetco Grange it was voted to sponsor a boy from this area to attend the Youth Camp in eastern Oregon this summer. To raise money to pay for the project, a food sale is being given this Saturday by the women of the Grange at the Highway Market and Hanscoms Center, with Mrs. Joe Zumpfe as chairman. This is a new project in this area and will let some teenage boy learn about ranch management at the two week camp. Mrs. Earl E. Brown is a happy and thankful woman these days. Last week she lost her purse with quite a sum of money in it besides all the papers one has in it. After a bad night, she was staying out from the Three Sisters Trailer Camp to start looking for it again when a man employed by the State Public Utilities Commission drove up and handed it to her. He had found it alongside the highway north of the Chetco Bridge and immediately hunted her up to return it. Mrs. Brown says that she must be getting her reward as she has returned some lost purses to their owners herself. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson, Mr. and Mrs. Birger Dahlstrom and children and Mr. and Mrs. Aron Sjoström were among the local people that drove to Fortuna a week ago Sunday to attend the Scandinavian Festival. They report that there must have been about two thousand people at the picnic lunch, and more to watch the folk dancing in the afternoon. Birger took a couple of rolls of movies of the dancing and will be showing them to his friends later. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pearline returned home last week. Mrs. Pearline had been in Los Angeles with her sister for over a month, and Mr. Pearline drove down to visit for a while before they both returned here. Mrs. Frank Helling and daughter are in San Jose for a couple of weeks to visit with her mother, Mrs. Grace Pitzer. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hanscom Jr. and three sons and L. W. Bowlin left in Junior's plane Sunday for points East. Junior is taking his wife to Vine Grove, Kentucky where she and the boys will visit with her family for six weeks when he will return and bring them home. Mr. Bowlin was going as far as Colorado where he will visit relatives until Junior stops on his way West, and he and his mother will return home with him. Mrs. Hanscom is just missing the wedding of her brother, Charles Mills who was married Wednesday evening. Charles spent a summer here with his sister and will be remembered by many Harborites. Wesley Smith, that perambulating deputy sheriff, was off galivanting again Monday, this time to LaGrande to visit at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Nightingale. He will meet another daughter, Mrs. Grant Eade and her family of Everett, Washington there and trade back cars with them. When the Eades were here ten days ago visiting they took Mr. Smith's station wagon for the trip to southern California and left him their Buick. Wes Smith and Sheriff R. G. Sabin of Gold Beach had just returned home Sunday from Lakeview where they attended the Oregon State Sheriff's convention. They enjoyed a day's fishing at Diamond Lake Saturday, but report that they had poor luck as they only caught seven trout between them. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hanscom took their three children to Grants Pass Sunday so that Terry and Timmy can take part in the Red Cross swimming lessons that last for two weeks. Pam went along so that she could visit also
