Read the following carefully

Following message contains hints for winning Ad-Rhime

For example, the merchant you trade with may put that dollar dollars at home. What's the advantage? Every dollar shipped out of Brookings to buy merchandise is never seen again. But a dollar sent here has a chance of coming back to you a variety of ways.

For exmpmle, the merchant you trade with may put that dollar you gave him with others for taxes. The county uses those taxes to fix the road up the Chetco. You may live up the Chetco, or at least travel it. Your dollar may be a small part in making your travel better.

There are hundreds of other ways your dollar may return in part—or all to you.

A dollar spent at home Isn't always on the roam.
