4H News

Marilyn Hale and Tony Fallet have been counselors at the tri-county 4-H camp for 4-hers from Coos, Curry and Douglas counties. The first week of camp was for the younger members, those up through the fifth grade. The second week older club members attended camp.

It is hoped that in the not too distant future Curry county will have a 4-H camp site of its own. There are three possible areas open for consideration at the present time, one is located up the Rogue River, the other two are the Boise park area which consists of five to eight acres and the Zahnie Crockett site which has a school building located on it.

Saturday and Sunday, August 25 and 26, is the week end planned for the 4-H leadership camp up the Rogue River.

Four-hers will have a part in the county fair at Gold Beach this week end. On opening day, Thursday, at 1 p.m. the 4-H home economics judging contests begin. At 10 a.m. on Friday 4-H livestock and other 4-H contests and demonstrations will be judged. Saturday is the big day when the judging is completed. The dress revue will be judged at 11 a.m. At the Queen's Banquet and Coronation at 6:30 Saturday night the presentation of 4-H awards will be made. The 4-H dress revue and style show will follow immediately at 7:30 to climax the 4-H events for this years fair.

Take in these events and get behind your 4-Hers and their leaders. You may even be surprised to see how well they carry out their activities.
