Harbor News Happenings

Well the fair is over, but there was lots of activity among the Chetco Grangers last Thursday and Friday. A committee under Ellen Jagers prepared a community booth which took second place in the judging. She was ably helped by many other Grange members. Another committee gathered together exhibits and took them to Gold Beach both days, and it is agreed that it will be easier to go to the fair when the road is changed between here and the county seat.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chapman Jr. are the proud parents of a seven pound, eight ounce daughter born at the Seaside hospital on August 2. They have named the little miss, Kathleen Marie. If you think that the parents are proud, you should see the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chapman Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Simpson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Skopec, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Keffer and three children, Mrs. Mary McCourt and Miss Betty Thompson returned home Sunday after vacationing at Clear Lakes Highlands, California. Mrs. Skopec, Betty and the three Keffer children were there for two weeks where they were joined by Mrs. Skopec's brother, H. C. Smalley and his family of Huntington Beach. Last week, Mr. and Mrs. Keffer, Mrs. McCourt and Mr. Skopec joined the others for the rest of the camping trip.

Ernest Foster drove over from Wimer to spend Sunday visiting at the home of his brother, Milton Foster.

Mrs. Ruth Bathiany returned home Sunday after spending a couple of weeks at the Lake of the Woods with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford and their family. She visited a few days in Medford on her way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tolman and family returned to their home in Napa Sunday after spending their two week's vacation here with Mr. Tolman's father, Will Tolman.

Joe Beardon arrived home last week after finishing his boot training at the Naval Training Station at San Diego. He with his wife and children then left immediately for the Great Lakes Training Center where he will report for further training at the end of his two week's leave.

Bob Darling drove to Bandon Thursday to visit with Mrs. Jennie Smith and she prevailed on him to bring her back home as she was so lonesome there.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murphy and three children from Williams, Iowa were recent house-guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Braynard for a few days.

The Winchuck Womens club enjoyed another of their summer picnics at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilman Duffy near Fort Dick. A good time was enjoyed by everyone. The club will hold its first regular meeting in September after the summer recess.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Griffin report that their son, Tommy, is progressing nicely at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland. Tommy has had skin grafts on both legs where they were badly burned last April when his gasolene soaked overalls burst into flame. He has been in the hospital about six weeks now and should be able to be brought home in a couple more weeks, just in time for school.

Mrs. Vivian Beeger, of Callistoga arrived last week for a visit here with her sister, Mrs. Will Tolman. She is well known as she has spent a lot of time here with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pearmain left with their trailer Thursday for Winchester Bay where they plan to stay a few weeks and try the fishing. They then plan to go over in the Salem country, their former home, for awhile before heading for Los Angeles and a visit with Mrs. Pearmain's sister, Mrs. J. L. Withrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Steinmeiz enjoyed a few days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stein and family of Encino, California who left Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Garrett left for Medford Sunday to make their future home there as they need a higher, drier climate for their health. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mance have moved into their home, as Mr. and Mrs. Gene Cosgrove will move into the former

BESSIE USHER MARRIES

RECENTLY IN WASHINGTON
Word comes to us of the recent marriage of Besse M. Usher and Earl Goings, well known hereabouts. They were married, recently, in Washington and after a trip east, into the latter country were glad to settle down in their home at Harbor. The bride has been employed as bookkeeper at Hanscom's Appliance Center and the groom locally employed in the lumber industry.
