HI-WAY MARKET

Bunnell-Crockett Rites Held Saturday, July 28

An evening ceremony at the Community Baptist church, July 28, united in marriage Evelyn Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bunnell and Davy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crockett. Pastor Walter Sadler officiated. The bride was gowned in white nylon lace over blue taffeta with a tiara of seed pearls holding in place her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Carol Lee Freeman was matron of honor and attendants were JaAnn Crockett and Helen Bunnell. They wore ballerina length dresses of pink, blue and lavender tulle, with bouquets and head-dresses of flowers to match. Susan Freeman was flower girl and Donna and Cindy Freeman candle-lighters. Performing the duties of best man was Vernon Crockett. Ushers were Edward Freeman, David Baldwin, Ray Western and David DeMartin.

A wedding reception followed the ceremony with Mrs. G. W. Hoagland serving the punch. Mrs. Henry Kerr serving coffee and Miss Helen Bunnell cut the wedding cake which was a gift to the bride, with all good wishes from Glen's Bakery, where she had long been employed.

Friday visitors at the Byron Libby home were Mrs. Dan Miles, Jr. of Ada, accompanied by her friends, Mrs. Ralph Bentley. Returning with them was Beverly Miles, after spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. Libby.
