

Grange Girl Scouts
Awarded Ribbons
At County Fair

Girls of the Grange sponsored Girl Scout Troop were awarded several ribbons and took $22 in cash prizes at the Curry County Fair. Their exhibits consisted of handwork, camp cookery, stamp collecting, and tree and plant foliage on which were pinned 5 blue, 3 red, and white ribbon as well as dividing the money.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Verloise Upp, helped by Mrs. Amy

Davis, the troop has as its president, Cheryl Craig; vice president, Lillian Nichols; secretary, Joyce Geaney; treasurer, Joyce King; platoon leaders, Camelia Schroeder and Marilyn Hover, with members; Elaine Nonemaker, Patty Patterson, Nigel Smith, Marilyn Gardner, Marlene Robinson, Vickie Messer, Bonnie Klienfelder, Mariann Longacre, Jerilyn Longacre and Jess Trostad.

Scouts Nigel and Vickie recently returned from a week at Camp Millicoma.

Members who have been taking in the swimming classes at Gasquet are: Bonnie Klienfelder, Joyce King, Marilyn Hover and Jessie Trostad.

Mrs. Upp and Mrs. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Hover took girls of Troop 3 on a beach party near Rainbow Rock, recently.

JIM WALLER'S TROUBLES

Jim Waller, Junior Hanscom's forest assistant, was having trouble with an old shoulder injury and went over to Medford last week for corrective surgery. He'll soon be back on the job, according to reports.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The new Presbyterian church is coming along nicely, at the corner of Oak and Pacific. Subfloor is all down and the studding going up. On the ground it sure looks bigger than it did on paper.

MORE DROWNINGS

One man was drowned, body recovered, and two boys presumably drowned, all taking chances in small boats with outboard motors on the ocean up at Taft.

ARCHERY GOODS SHOP

A new factory making archery gear has been set up at Gold Hill according to the Central Point AMERICAN. The Tarbell Custom Bow Shop has been formed by Neil Tarbell and two associates, from Southern California. The firm will specialize in custom made archery equipment.

TO VANCOUVER ISL.

Douglas Goldsberry and Donald Munson left the middle of the week, in Doug's mechanical sawbug, headed for camping trip as far north as they can go on Vancouver Island. They plan to follow the coast all the way, and return via the City of Vancouver.

SEWER & STREET LEVIES

Non-profit organizations are required to pay immediate cash for any assessments against their property, according to the latest word. They are not privileged to "Bancroft" as tax-yielding persons or groups are. Non-profit outfits include property held in the name of lodges or other fraternal or social organizations, churches, etc.
