Brookings Items

Cecil James, for several years a truck operator out of Brookings, was over from the valley to see how the town was getting along without him. Said he was satisfied we were doing all right, and would be back again, later, for further checking.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pyne were hosts this past week end to their entire family with the exception of one son, Stan, who is stationed with the air force in France. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pyne Jr., Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Pyne and sons, Terry and Tony, Del Rio, Texas; John just home from Japan; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Jorgenson and sons, Donald and Gene; Mr. and Mrs. James Pyne and children,, Mel Janet and Dusty, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nelson all of Brookings; and Miss Pete Lambert of Davenport, Washington.

H. C. Decker, who has been quite an invalid at his home on the Dawson Tract, was flown out to a railroad hospital at Tacoma in a Mercy Flights plane Monday. He is a former railroad man. He and Mrs. Decker came here about ten years ago and formerly lived at Harbor. He was taken to the airport in Wier's ambulance.

While sitting in the bow of a fishing boat, along with a party, out on the Coquille river, Mrs. Harvey Hiley felt a sound whack on her back. She was facing aft. Looking down, there flipped an 8-10 pound salmon, sharing her seat. She was too surprised to grab, and the fish slid off into the water. That's Mrs. Hiley's story. What did the salmon tell his gang?

Andrew Muth, Neenah, Wisconsin arrived last Friday to visit his daughter and son-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joesph Murphy. Mr. Muth plans on staying in Brookings for another week.

CRESCENT CITY SURVEYS

The sewer and water systems of Crescent City will be surveyed by the firm of Bates and Totter, according to an agreement recently entered into between the firm and the city council.

Both of these utilities are said to be in a sad condition in the Del Norte county seat, lines having been installed and incomplete records or none at all, made of their location. The water and sewer situation there is said to be especially serious.

ACCORDION BAND ENTERTAINS I.O.O.F.

Dave Crockett's Accordian Band entertained at the I.O.O.F. Grand Lodge visitation to Klamath Lodge No. 41, Crescent City, recently. Among their appreciative audience were many visitors from a wide area, including Grand Master Earl R. Beecher of

A Girl For Andersons

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Anderson on the first day of October, says Dr Brown.
