To Visit Australia

Mrs. Grace Yelton accompanied her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Sutcliffe, to San Francisco, where she will take a plane Friday morning for Australia to visit another daughter and family.

October 19 at 7:30 at the school-house.

Mrs. Gladys Payne, president, will be in charge of the business meeting. Since there is seldom time to visit with all your neighbors, it is planned to dispense with a formal program this month and, as Vera Leeds, secretary puts it, "chat with our friends over coffee and". The "and" will be served by Mabel Baldwin and Neva Thorton.

To The Voters of Curry County

I respectfully announce that I am a candidate at the November 6th election for Justice of the Peace, 1st District. I have been appointed as Justice of the Peace pro-tem in the place of Roy H. Brown and amnowacting Justice of the Peace.

On the ballots the name of Roy H. Brown will appear but he has left the district and will not qualify if elected. Therefore I respectfully request that my name be written in the blank space following the printed name of Roy H. Brown. Please write as follows: "X H. G. NELSON".

If you elect me to this office I promise to give the same efficient attention to the position of Justice of the Peace that I have given my position as Municipal Judge of the City of Brookings for the past five years.

I humbly refer the electors of the county to my record as Municipal Judge during this period.

Respectfully,
H. G. NELSON

A Few Reasons for Re-electing

Geo. W. Sutton

for

Assessor, Curry County

He was nominated by both the Republican and Democratic parties at the regular Primary election.

He has been instrumental in getting the Tax Commission re-appraisal and equalization program for Curry County under way.

His experience in the assessor's office has ranged through the depression values of the early 1930's to the prosperous values of today.

He has been successful in fixing and maintaining fair and equalized taxable values of all classes of property. His office has kept abreast of all advances in appraisal methods, practices and regulations.

His knowledge of county business, county records and county affairs is invaluable. His conscientious and economical conduct of his office is praiseworthy.

His ability in cruising timber, surveying and mapping is of great and necessary importance to this office.

He is Worth Keeping on the Job

Pd. Pol. Adv. Sutton for Assessor Com., Ray Zumwalt, chmn.
