Local Elks Hold Initiation Here

"It was a fine initiation", were the words of all the members in attendance Thursday, October 11, the night of the Grand Exalted Rulers Class B. P. O. Elks. The turnout was good with some 86 members aboard including the initiates.

The new members were: Edgar B. Spear, Bud Pisarek, Don Merritt, Jack Long, Glenn Duncan, Cecil Smith, Harley Mitts, Harry Mullen, Alvin Wade, Gene Gould, Bud McCourt, Charles Norman, George Hannan, M. D. Fristoe, Fred Decker, John Thomas, James Holben, Eugene Costello, James Yarbrough, Rex Nickles and Robert Brogan.

Twenty-one initiates (count 'em. This will make the Grand Exalted Ruler Fred L. Bohn very happy. He says, "A stronger Elksdom for a better America". What better way for a stronger Elksdom than more Elks. There were also three Elks entered on the roster by transfer demit. They are Albert Duncan, Virgil Baldwin, and Douglas Danville.

Spaghetti and meat balls were served after the meeting and everyone ate to capacity. There must have been some who didn't but it wasn't me says Buzz Stewart. Thanks goes out to the Emblem club ladies.

FOR THE FUNNY BONE

May: "What color dress are you going to wear to the party to-morrow night?"

Faye: "Each ladie is supposed to wear something to match her husbands hair so I guess I'll wear my grey dress. What are you going to wear?"

May: "I guess I'd better not go."

VISITATION

The official visitation of the B. B. G. E. R. Bud Fellows and vice president of the state Elks Association will be November 15. A good turnout at that meeting will be both appreciated and expected. No doubt that it will be an interesting message brought to you then.

Crescent City Has Visitation

Elk Brothers Bob Rettke, Gordon Geotz, "Tike" Rettke, "Chub" Coons and Clarence Kruger went to Crescent City Tuesday, October 7 for Crescent lodges' regular dinner meeting. Bob Rettke took the part of leading Knight. An initiation ceremony was also held.

Halloween Dance

Saturday, October 27, the skeletons and scapulas will rattle at the Elks Halloween Dance. It will be a costume Ball. Prizes for the best, the mostest, the funniest, etc. costume.

Along with favors, hats, and Monkeyshings there will be a four piece orchestra from Eureka to provide the music. At 1 a.m. there will be something to eat. Come on everybody you don't have to wear a false face if you don't care to, wear a real one.

Everyone admitted at $2.00 a couple.

Check Speed limit markers with your own speedometer, every time you pass one.
