The new Del Rio Ranch Wagon

It's a new kind of FORD Wagon for '57

Ford's new long, lean look alone could make you say, "This is the wagon I've always wanted!"

But wait till you've seen the spacious interiors of these new Ford glamour wagons with their smart new fabrics and trim... the shrewdest combination of beauty and practicality ever.

And while we're listing fine-car features, there's Ford's new ride, achieved by a completely new "Inner Ford." The frame is wider, the wheels smaller—for better road holding. There are new front and rear suspensions to fade out the bumps... new body insulation, the most ever offered in Ford's field, to shut out cold and noise.

Add to these features the fun of Ford

V-8 performance. It's yours in generous measure, no matter which of the new Silver Anniversary V-8's you choose.* And if you're "six-minded," Ford has the world's most modern... the famous Mileage Maker Six, now mightier and more responsive than ever!

Come in now—and sample this new adventure named Ford!

Two Walk Off With prizes

Roger Thompson and Henry La Barge are the football experts in the Brookings-Harbor area this week. Both had only three 'losers' in 13 games, including the tie.

Thompson wins a Voit football, while Mr. La Barge won a Conquest Perfume set. La Barge picked both Oregon teams to win—and they did.

Four others picked all but four—they were John Washburn, D. Williams, Claude Bollman, Frank Fanger. Washburn gets a Lady Beautiful set, Williams a Spic and Span set, Bollman a Lush Planter set and Fanger a set of Hubley Mechanical Toys.

There was a whole raft of contestants picking all but five, with 10 persons coming that close.

The third weekly contest appears elsewhere in this issue. All prizes can be picked up at Hi-Way Market.

Teachers Attend County Institute

The Brookings-Harbor teachers attended Teachers' Institute at Gold Beach, October 25 and 26. The theme of Thursday's meetings, "What do I expect of the Public Schools and what can I do for them," was presented in an interesting manner by several outstanding educators and businessmen.

Friday's meeting were devoted to the problem of teaching the conservation of our natural resources. Several authorities on conservation in Oregon acted as consultants and indicated their willingness to be of further assistance at any time they are needed.

Bill Brown Death Reported

The community was saddened Tuesday to learn of the death of William "Bill" Brown, former Brookings Chief of Police, who died early Tuesday morning. Brown was a candidate for the Justice of Peace office here.

Services were to be held on Thursday, Nov. 8, at 2 p.m. at St. Timothy's Episcopal Church.

Brown was married, and had a family. He was a former Lt. Col. in the Army, and had received two Silver Stars for distinguished service during the last war.

Interment will be at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland.

A complete obituary will be given in next week's pilot.

Fifteen Players

Win Letters

Fifteen football players, and three managers were to receive their letters at an award assembly. To be given letters are the following:

Seniors: Jerry Anderson, Stan Gribble, Charles Hoffman, Phillip Kessler, Ronald Lane and David More; Juniors: Jerry Fox, David Guess and Ronald McCabe; Sophomores: Bob Berger, Bert Clayton, Ron Fallert, Jim Gribble, Bill Guthrie and Ray Hansen.

Managers to receive awards are Alvin Sanders, Don Morris and "Dr." Paul Williams.

Saturday the Letterman's club will meet under the direction of Mr. Cal Pace to hold their yearly initiation. To be installed are Ron Fallert, Dave Guess, Dave Gates, Dave Moore, Chuck Hoffman, Jim Gribble, Bert Clayton, Bill Workinger; Managers Sanders and Dr. Williams.
