

Report Clendenin Phetteplace Rites

On November 3 at the Star of the Sea Catholic church, in an impressive ceremony, vows were exchanged between Miss Joann Clendenin, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Clendenin of Harbor and Dennis Phetteplace, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Phetteplace of Brookings.

Rev. Emil Kies officiated at the 5 p.m. double ring ceremony. Miss Evelyn Munley was the organist, with Mrs. Ruth Reister and Mrs. Marilyn Shipley singing "Prayer for a Perfect Life", and "Ave Maria".

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. O. Dobbs from Berkeley, California, wore a traditional gown of champagne tulle and lace made with bridal point long sleeves and high net neck line. She wore a finger tip veil cascading from a seed pearl crown and carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Dennis Fadling, friend of the bride, who was matron of honor, wore a dress of pink nylon net over taffeta and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

The flower girls, Sheila Lively and Margaret Dahlstrom were dressed alike in full dresses of pink taffeta and carried baskets of pink and white roses.

Dennis Fadling, friend of the groom, was best man and ushers were Jerry Anderson and Joe Sarver.

Kathy Hannan and Barbara Dahlstrom were in charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a tailored black dress with red accessories and wore a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother wore a navy blue shiek dress with pink accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception was held at the Grange hall. The tablecloth which was used on the bride's table was over 100 years old. The white four tiered cake, topped with the traditional bride and groom was cut by the bride's aunt Mrs. O. Dobbs. Mrs. George Hannan and Mrs. Ivan Glas poured the coffee and punch.

Mrs. Lydia Browman and Mrs. Frank Gran were in charge of the gifts.

For going away the bride wore a sheath dress and a beige duster.

Both Mr. and Mrs. D. Phetteplace attended Brookings high school. The groom spent two years with the U. S. Army in Europe.

are urged to attend the meeting of the churches to be held at the Merrill Bullock home Monday, November 26 at 8 p.m. The Bullocks live in back of the Crest Motel.

Evangelist E. Gilbert Cays will be in charge of the meeting.

Brother of Mr. Bealieu
Dies at Grants Pass

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bealieu were called to Grants Pass Monday by a message from Grants Pass hospital, that Mr. Bealieu's younger brother had died from a sudden heart attack.

Edward Bealieu was a native of Red Lake Falls, Minnesota, and was a World War I veteran, having been stationed in Germany. He leaves three brothers and one sister. He was buried at Grants Pass Wednesday with Father Kelly conducting the services.
