Faculty Wins Game

The Brookings-Harbor school faculty took over the mythical "City Championship" in basketball this week, when they whipped a strong sophomore class team, 51-41, Friday night in a game played before a large crowd at the school smoker.

The sophomores earlier had won the school intramural championship.

The faculty, using center, Jim Duff to best advantage pulled away from the sophomores early in the third period, after trailing for a time in the second period. Duff, who at 6' 7" is a hard man to stop. He dropped in 12 buckets, and eight out of eight free throws to pace all scoring with 32 points.

Despite a lack of "conditioning" the faculty moved off to a 15-11 first quarter lead, with Duff dumping in 11 points, and Jess Thurman and Doug MacFarlane each two.

The sophs caught up in the second quarter, but despite a nice race horse game weren't able to pull far enough ahead.

In the third quarter the teachers poured in 17 markers to pull away, while the sophs could net only 10. Duff hit nine points in that period.

Scoring was fairly evenly divided among the sophs, with Hanson netting 12, Berger seven, Anderson and Gribble six apiece, and Midwood each five.

The box score:

The Faith Lutheran church will have special Thanksgiving Day services at 10 a.m. Rev. Joseph Galambos reported that "The president of the U. S. has once more suggested that the citizens of this nation assemble in the churches of their choice to render thanks unto God".

A TREADMILL EXISTENCE

is not the kind of life God has designed for you. When the sparkle is gone, and life seems to have lost its purpose, you will find in Jesus Christ the answer to your deepest longings. "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." John 10:10
