Apologies are due to Jim and Earleen Carson on getting the wrong name in last weeks issue of the paper for their new daughter, Little seven pound eight oz. Jeannie Earleen who joined their family on November 12th at the Seaside hospital. We are sorry the name came out Janie Marie as tween the two.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gustafson returned home Sunday after spending Thanksgiving in Oakland with Mrs. Gustafson's daughter Mrs. Gunberg Valentine. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Thor Ask of Vashon, Washington for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson are driving one of the first new Mercurys seen in this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Woodruff returned home last week after driving to Southern California where they visited relatives. When they returned home, they were accompanied by Mrs. Woodruff's mother, Mrs. Lillian Lively, who had been visiting at the home of her daughter in San Bernardino. Mrs. Lively, who has been quite ill, is much better now.

Albert Joy spent Thanksgiving in Ashland with his son, Dick Joy and his family. The whole group came over to the coast on Friday where they enjoyed the wonderful weather here until Sunday. Dick Joy is the landscape gardener at Southern Oregon college in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Specht of Ashland returned to their home Monday after coming here for Thanksgiving at the home of their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foster. Another house guest for the holiday week end at the Foster home was Carroll Reekman of Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keayes became the parents of a nine pound eight ounce daughter at the Seaside hospital on November 24. This is the Keayes third child.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hempel and Harold Gardner Jr. drove to Portland Friday to bring LeRoy Gardner and his grandmother, Mrs. Fred Gardner home. Leroy had been in Providence hospital in Portland for special treatment as he had a virus of the spinal cord. The condition has been taken care of, and he will be able to return to school in a couple of weeks.

Roger Oliver received word from his wife in San Francisco, that he had become the grandfather of twin boys born to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hutman, on Sunday. Mr. Oliver left the same day to drive to San Francisco to become acquainted with the new grandsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simpson had their two children, Eugene and Karen home for the Thanksgiving week end. Eugene, who attends Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls picked up Janet Bailey and Loretta Waldien, students at Southern Oregon college in Ashland, so they could be home too, for the holiday. Mr. and Mrs. Verne Garvin, also students OTI were home for the holiday.

Jack Elvin, an eight pound, seven ounce bundle of babyhood, joined the Duane Anderson family at the Seaside hospital on November 17. We don't blame the parents being proud of a nice present like that.

Mrs. William Skopec is enjoying a months vacation in Hawaii at the home of her two sons, Alfred and Jim myMontgomery. She left Seattle on the tenth and flew to Honolulu where her sons own the "Montgomery Motors." While there she met Mrs. Vi Parker, sister of Ray Struebing, and she flew to the island of Maui to spend a week end at the Parker's Sugar plantation. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Chandler and four children left last week to make their home in Ranier, Oregon. They have been living in the Archie McVay house on the South Bank road near Harbor. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wallace and children drove to William to spend a recent week end. When they returned home, Mrs. Wallace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McCoy, returned with them to stay over Thanksgiving.
