Brownie Group Sells Corsuges

A Brownie group led by Mrs. Don Bingman and Mrs. Fred Bradshaw are working on a project, designed to help pay their share in raising funds for the fire place needed for the Youth Building.

The girls are making permanent corsuges out of sponge rubber and ribbon, and will sell them for 25 cents each. One girl has already taken orders for 12 of them. The girls in the group are Dianne Pierce, Sandra Kieffer, Susan Veley, Kathy Bushnell, Connie Swanson, Karen Bradshaw, Janice King, Donna Lee Bingman, Joyce Klass, Dianna Walker.

BABSON'S FORECAST APPEARS NEXT WEEK

The Pilot will publish Babson's Business and Financial Forecast for 1957 next week, January 3.

A careful checking of the Babson predictions made in the Business and Financial Forecast for 1956 upholds the remarkable average of the past years by being 55% correct! The score for the past eighteen years holds the best and highest record for annual forecasts on U. S. future business.

Victor Yahr returned home from Oregon State College for the holidays to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Yahr.

Eleanor McCabe, Gale Lane, Linda Brown and Janet Pyne.
