Several to See Rose Bowl Game

A group of Brookings people will be among those sitting in the Rose Bowl on January 1 to see Oregon State play Iowa in the Rose Bowl Classic.

Ron Akers, a student at Oregon State will be one of the more than 2700 Oregon State students who will travel to Pasadena, Ron, son of Mrs. Minna Akers, will travel by special bus.

Elmer Bankus, Mildred Byrne, and her daughter, Joan Byrne will also attend the game as will Warren Smith.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY HELD THEIR CHRISTMAS PARTY THURS.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church held their Christmas party Thursday, December 20 in the Sunday school. Fourteen ladies were present. A short business meeting was held, and afterwards a Christmas program was presented, with Mrs. Walter Sadler in charge. The program was a make believe radio broadcast, with Mrs. Gerald Moore being the announcer. The script was from Peter Marshall's prayer for Christmas with appropriate musical background.

Mrs. Moore also sang "Little Jesus" with Mrs. Ralph Reed accompanist.

After the program the group gathered around the Christmas tree for the gift exchange. Christmas cookies and coffee were served. Hostesses were Mrs. Kerns and Mrs. Ackley. The next meeting will be on January 17 to finish up the White Cross sewing. It will be an all day meeting beginning at 10 a.m.
