When in a fix—try a mix! This was the theme for the regular meeting of the Chetco Unit of the Home Extension which was held on Wednesday, January 16, at the home of Lucille Max.

The project was "Ready Mixes Home Made", given by Mildred Popken and Mintie Knisel. There were 15 members present and one guest, Mrs. Flora Bensch of Venice, California, who is the aunt of Mrs. Emma Chambers.

Two new members were added which brings the roll call to 23.

Suggestions for the Idea Box were given. From this the 1957-58 program is selected.

On January 14 the preliminary meeting of the Basic Dress was given by Sylvia Lee, county home extension agent at the Grange hall 18 members from the Chetco Unit signed to finish the project which will take four work shop days in February.

READ THE PILOT ADS

"No Young Man Believes He Shall Ever Die..."

Charles Lamb wrote "not childhood alone, but the young man till 30 never feels practically that he is mortal."

But young men do die, too! The Bible urges all to prepare for life, as well as death. "The fleeting years" are richer spent in Church.
