Bob Rettke Hits 700 Series to Take Lead In "March of Dimes" Bowling Tourney

Bob Rettke, with his famous left-handed hook, swept into first place in the annual March of Dimes bowling tourney this week with a big 700 series. The tourney will end this week end, according to Bud McCourt who has headed up the events.

One hundred and seventy events have been rolled thus far, and it is expected that this week end will see many more bowlers on the lanes in the tourney.

Bob Kimble and Jack Anderson

combined for a 1308 to lead in the doubles while Ethel Barns hit a 592 to lead in the women's singles and Shirley Rettke and Lois Ann Miller with 1169 head up the women's doubles. Merchant trophies are to be awarded the winners and all proceeds will go to the March of Dimes fund.

The March of Dimes have done well in other things this year too, although the total collected won't be known for a week or so. A total of $409.85 was raised

JV Squad Loses 57-53

A bad third quarter cost the Brookings JV squad a decision here Tuesday afternoon in a game with Illinois Valley. Taking a 15-10 first quarter lead, and a 29-23 first half lead things looked pretty good for a fine Bruins JV squad.

at the big Lions club party held at the Cliff House. A good crowd was on hand for the affair. Another $60 was raised at the basketball game last week and the Variety Show totals aren't in as yet.

But then the roof fell in. IV swished through six buckets and nine free throws in the third quarter for 21 points, while Brookings just couldn't find the range. One basket, by Fred Anderson, and three free throws by Dale Rutledge and six by Jim Gribble was all they could salvage. IV led by a 44-38 count, and Brookings wasn't able to close the gap much in the final period, even though five IV men had fouled out by the games end.

It was pretty much of a free throw contest, with the locals hitting on 33 gift tosses, 20 by Gribble alone out of 26 shots, a remarkable record. IV hit on 23 shots out of 38 with Whiteley hitting on 13 out of 15 shots.

Gribble led the local scoring with 22, while Rutledge had 18 points and Anderson 11.

in the afternoon because the Cougars were unable to make it over last Friday because of the road conditions.

Illinois Valley, looking very smooth moved out in front 11-6 in the first quarter, and commanded a 26-22 half time lead. During the third quarter they hit from all angles, while the Brooks were able to do nothing. IV outscored the locals 16-10 in that period to lead by a 42-32 count. In one stage of the period they had pushed ahead to a 13 point advantage, and it looked bleak indeed for the Bruins.

Suddenly, with the insertion of Ron Lane into the line-up the Brooks came to life. They began hitting, and taking the ball away from the harrassed Cougars. With less than a minute to go they finally got within two points. But then they were stopped. A couple of free throw chances went awry, and a couple of shots missed tying the game. With only seven seconds left a shot by Marv Bullock dunked in—and out, and the game went with it.

Marv Bullock led Bruin scoring with 14 points, while Jerry Anderson added 11. Stan Gribble 7, Lane 6, Worker 5 and Ron Bullock 1.

Dan Slanaker hit for 14 and Mike Piller 13 for Illinois Valley.

IV Starts Fast Dumps Brooks

Illinois Valley got off to a fast start and then staved off a Brookings rally to upset the Brooks Tuesday afternoon in a Rogue River league game here. The final score was 46-44 in a game played her bridge club Wednesday with two tables in play.
