Robert Bowlin arrived home Saturday after a three and a half year stint working for Uncle Sam. First he was in the service, then went to Munich, Germany twenty-one months ago on a civilian duty status. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Bowlin who live on the Winchuck River.

celebrated her birthday right this year with four groups of friends remembering the occasion. On Sunday, she and her husband, happy, were guests at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne at noon. On Monday, her birthday, with the contrivance of her husband, she was completely surprised to have a dinner prepared in her honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verden Wheeler. Later the same evening, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Arp appeared on the scene with a beautifully decorated birthday cake. To round out the celebrating, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffeldt are invited to attend the VFW crab feed this Friday evening by other friends.

Ernest Foster of Wimer spent the week end here at the home of his brother, Milton, and looked after his property. His son, George, who is stationed with the army in the bay area, arrived also on Friday night and visited until Sunday, staying one of the nights at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ray.

Mrs. Ralph Keiser and granddaughter, Teresa, spent a few days last week in Portland visiting at the home of her son, Ted Keiser. They made the trip north by the coast route, and returned by the Pacific highway. While in Portland they attended the ball. Mr. and Mrs. Thor Ask drove up to Brookings Sunday from Santa Barbara, California for a short visit with Mr. Ask's mother, Mrs. F. Gustafson. They were accompanied by Mrs. Ask's mother, Mrs. Iaa DeMoss.

Mrs. Carrie Miller returned to her home in Walla Walla, Washington Sunday evening after conducting a very instructive school for Sunday school teachers at the Baptist Community church.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Brown spent the past week end in Rio Dell with Mrs. Brown's sister and family. Mr. and Mrs. Randall Carter. Mrs. Carter was formerly a teacher in the Brookings elementary school.

Mr. Carl Harrison returned Sunday from Portland where he attended an Oregon Education Association meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bollinger drove to Coos Bay on business the past week.
