

Harbor News Notes

The Waffle feed and dance given by the Youth Committee of Chetco Grange at the Grange hall on the 16th attracted a large crowd which consumed lots of good waffles, sausage and bacon. After the dinner was over an evening of dancing was thoroughly enjoyed by the group. The money raised by the affair will help pay for the record player and sound system to be installed. Harvey was the chairman in the Grange hall. Mrs. Leonard charge of the evenings entertainment.

Mrs. Elmer Miller and her father, A. F. (Fletch) Gardner drove down from Siletz to visit at the E. L. Miller and Lee Miller homes there. Roy Gardner came up from Eureka to visit his father who then went to Eureka for a visit before going north again. Fletch, who came to the Chetco country when just a boy, celebrated his ninety-third birthday recently.

Wes Smith is reported to be resting not so comfortably at the home of sheriff and Mrs. R. G. Sabin in Gold Beach, while he is undergoing treatment for a bout of Sciata rheumatism. Mr. Sabin came down after Mr. Smith when he became incapacitated and took him to Gold Beach to stay until he is better.

Mrs. Rose Hubbard underwent a serious operation at the Seaside hospital in Crescent City Friday. She went into deep shock and had to have several blood transfusions, but is reported to be responding favorably now, but faces a lengthy convalescence after she is able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Payne and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sony Chapman, spent the weekend in Grants Pass visiting another daughter, Mrs. Gene Reiling and helping Herbert Reiling celebrate his sixth birthday, which comes on Wash-
