Specialist T. E. C. Third Class Glen Kelley spent a week with his wife, Anna May, who makes her home with her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Chas Stanhurst, while her husband is in the service. He is stationed at Fort Benning, Ga., and expects to be shipped to Germany on March 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Weeks and daughter Gayle visited with relatives in Gsants Pass over the weekend.

Mrs. Horance Ayer and Mrs. E. Ackley were hostesses Wednesday for the Baptist Missionary Society. Sixteen ladies were in attendance. After a business meeting Mrs. Frank Manley, missionary from India gave a very interesting talk on ways and customs in that country, particularly among the poor people of the many small villages. Dr. and Mrs. Manley both spoke on their work there in the evening following a pot luck dinner.

Miss Ruth Woodward, teacher at Casterline, Calif., spent the holiday with her sister Mrs. Bert DeMoss.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Peterson and twin sons of Cupertino, Cal., were over night guests recently of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harbin. They were on their way to Bellingham to attend their daughters wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Harbin recently sold their acreage at Tide Rock to Mr and Mrs. Glen Hurst, and August Johnson. The Harbins have moved to Brookings, having purchased a home on Pine St.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stiles of Klamath Falls were weekend visitors of Mrs. Laura Redfield and Mrs. F. Webber. Mrs. Don Redfield and two children accompanied them over, and visited with Mrs. Redfield's parents Mr. and Mrs. Art Pierce.

A group of friends helped Ed Raveke's celebrate his birthday Saturday. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jagger's, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Drobaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Don McCarton and Mr. Raveke's daughter Mrs. Laughrian.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Pierce were hosts Friday evening, February 22 at their home on Valley Street to the Rock Hound club. Nineteen members were present and a very interesting discussion on rocks and where they came from was much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Sanford and daughter Debra of Port Orford spent several days recently with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Harbin, also helping the Harbins in remodeling their new home.

Mrs. L. G. Twohy entertained the Tuesday bridge club at her home. Two tables were in play.

Mrs. Merry Laughrian and three children of Santa Rosa, Cal., are making their home with Mrs. Laughrian's father, Ed Ravekes.
