Hanscam Joins Leonard Agency

The announcement was made this week that Merle Hanscam, former logging contractor, would become associated with Leonard Real Estate and Insurance Co. Hanscam, a life time resident of this area, has started with the firm. He is Exalted Ruler of the Brookings Elks Lodge.

Lutherans Fight Delinquency

Oregon's Lutherans are providing a preventive method of coping with juvenile delinquency and broken-home situations. At the annual meeting of the Oregon Lutheran Welfare Association held at Central Lutheran church, Portland, February 16, they voted to add to their staff W. E. Payne, Ph. D., an experienced social psychologist, who has had notable success in preserving and improving Christian family relationships as well as repairing broken or impaired family situations.

Bible Subject to Be Given March 19

J. Linger Wood of Vancouver, British Columbia will speak on "How the light of Truth presented in the Bible brings liberation from discord and disease" on Tuesday, March 19.

He will speak in the V. F. W. hall under the auspice of the Christian Science Society, Brookings. The lecture is free, and local members have invited the public to attend.

Film to Be Shown Friday, March 8

The World Day of Prayer, sponsored by the Seventh Day Adventist church will be held on Friday, March 8th, at 7:30 p.m.

A colored film, titled "My Right and My Cause" filmed in Korea with Korean background music will be shown. The film is a dramatic story on how the Bible was saved during the Korean war. Everyone interested is cordially invited.

Home Extension To Meet Wednesday

A seafood luncheon will be held Wednesday, March 13th at 12 noon at the home of Mrs. Wayne Davis, 330 Maple St. with a charge of 50c. A business meeting will follow, with the election of officers. Visitors are welcome.

Jumble Sale Coming!

Something will be added to the forthcoming sale, planned by the Ladies Auxillary—a "Jumble Sale". Mrs. Homer Brown, in charge of the event, to be held in their hall March 26th to 29th, says that new goods will be offered in addition to the used merchandise one usually finds at "Rummage Sales". Mrs. Brown and her helpers have already accumulated considerable material for their sale, proceeds from them usually being expended here at home.

Harbor News Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lindgren drove to Medford last week where they attended the wedding of Mr. Lindgren's son, LeRoy to Miss Beverlee Jean Taylor of Central Point on Friday evening. The wedding was held at the Medford Central Church of Christ at 7:30 reading the ceremony. After the reception the young couple came to this area for a brief honeymoon. They will make their home at Toketee Falls where the groom is employed in the maintenance division of the California-Oregon Power Company.

Mr. Ole Lindgren returned home Sunday while his wife remained in Medford to visit her father, Jack Tungate, who is in poor health.

Mrs. Rose Hubbard was able to be brought home Sunday from the Seaside hospital where she had been for about ten days following a major operation. She is recuperating nicely but will have to take it easy for some time. Her sister, Mrs. Grace Marshal of Eugene arrived Friday to be here for an indefinite visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pearmine returned last week from a several weeks visit with relatives in Los Angeles. They have parked their trailer near the Lundeen home as their Harbor property is leased out.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kendall and two children returned home the latter part of the week after spending about three months in Tacoma where Mr. Kendall was working.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crump and their son, Rollin, drove to Portland Saturday so that Mr. Crump could go through the clinic the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Allen Traver drove down from their home in Richland, Wash., on their honeymoon and visited Mr. Traver's sister, Mrs. Bud Rausch and his aunt, Mrs. L. G. Stafford for a couple of days. When they returned home they were accompanied by Mr. Traver's father, who had been visiting here for several weeks, and who after a short visit in Richmond will go on to his home in Linton, North Dakota.

The Evangelism Mission Callers of Faith Lutheran church were entertained at a pot-luck supper last Wednesday by Mrs. George Dunning at the beautiful, ocean-front home. Those present were: The Rev. Richard Meyer of Pasadena, California, Guest Missioner; Mr. and Mrs. George Swanson; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Phillips; Mrs. Marjorie Renhard; Mrs. Constance Niemie; Mrs. Russell Nelson; and Pastor and Mrs. Joseph Galambos.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson drove down from Portland last week. After a few days here at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Jack returned to Portland where he is a patient at the Veterans hospital, while Mrs. Johnson remained here for a longer stay at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zumpfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Holland of Weaverville pleasantly surprised Mrs. Holland's sister, Milton Foster and family Tuesday afternoon, and remained for a couple of days visit. They had just returned from a trip to Mexico where they spent several weeks.
