

4-H Cow Belles Plan
Father of Year Award

Mrs. Joe Oliver, president of the Oregon Cow Belles, reports one of the major projects this year will be the selection of an Oregon Father of the Year. This project will tie in with the program of beef promotion to make beef the traditional food for father on Father's Day, which is June 16.

The selection of the Father of the Year will be made by various children's organizations such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and 4-H members. A panel of five men from newspaper, education, labor, agriculture and professional fields will be the final judges.

The fathers to be selected as participants will be judged on: 1—Adaption to the Golden Rule and religious qualities; 2—Sense of family responsibility; 3—Community service; 4—Any legal father, not divorced; and 5—Individual children's achievements.

The winner of this contest will receive an appropriate trophy and one-half carcass of BEEF, custom-wrapped.

Wilbert Anderson, chairman of this Father of the Year selection in Curry county, urges all youth organizations to select their outstanding fathers and submit their names to her by May 15.

This is not the first time studies have been made of the Chetco library and its operation and it would appear that it is of no little interest to people further along in the business.

Operetta to Be Given March 22

Attention all you lovers of opera! All of you who love to watch opera but never get anything out of it because it is sung in German, French, etc., will be happy to learn that the operetta the Brookings-Harbor Music Dept. is going to present is sung and spoken in English! The operetta is a romantic and exciting sea tale told in two acts.

"The H. M. S. Pinafore" or "The Lass that Loved a Sailor" was written by Gilbert and Sullivan. It is an exciting tale of a seaman who has fallen in love with the daughter of his commanding officer.

Likewise, a peddler woman has fallen in love with the Captain. Class pride stands in the way. To make things worse, the Captain has been arranging a marriage between his daughter and Sir Joseph Porter, First Lord of the Admiralty, who is of a social class above the others!

The cast is as follows:
Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter K. C. B. First Lord of the Admiralty, Chuck Hoffman; Captain Corcoran, Commander of the H. M. S. Pinafore, Gary Galambos; Ralph Rackstraw, Able Seaman; Dave Moore, Dick Deadeye, Able Seaman, Al Mikkelsen; Bill Bobstay, Boatswain's Mate, Dave Bushnell; Bob Beckett, Carpenters Mate, Jerry Smith; Josephine, the Captain's daughter, Jackie Smith; Cousin Hebe, Sir Joseph's first cousin, Sandy Whillock; Little Buttercup, a Portsmouth Bumboat woman, Judy Sadler.

"The H. M. S. Pinafore" will be the first operetta presented here for several years. The students have been working extra
