Resolution of

Port of Brookings

WHEREAS, Ed F. Ackley, attorney at law, has served the Port of Brookings as its legal counsel, generously and gratuitously giving of his time, money and professional knowledge, to accomplish the status which the Port of Brookings now possesses incorporation of the port district, appropriation of federal moneys and being on the brink of constructing the Chetco River harbor improvement; and

WHEREAS, the people have elected the said Ed F. Ackley to the office of District Attorney for Curry County, Oregon; and

WHEREAS, the said Ed F. Ackley has informed the Commission of the Port of Brookings that by reason of certain rulings heretofore made by the Attorney General, he feels that he is not permitted to serve as legal counsel to the Port of Brookings while occupying the office of District Attorney, and, therefore, has requested that the Port Commission obtain other legal counsel; and

WHEREAS, the Port Commission desires that its appreciation of the valuable service rendered it and community by the said Ed F. Ackley be made a matter of public record;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Commission of the Port of Brookings, in regular session assembled, this 8th day of March, 1957, that Ed F. Ackley should be and he is hereby highly commended for the valuable assistance and service which he has so generously rendered in the interest of the Port of Brookings.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the resignation of Ed F. Ackley, as legal counsel to the Port of Brookings, be and is hereby accepted; and that Samuel A. Hall be and he is hereby appointed legal counsel for the Port of Brookings.
