Recognize This Spot?

You can vacation by the sea, in the mountains, and along a river all in one week end if you spend it at Brookings by the sea! Sandy beaches for frolicking or collecting driftwood and rocks—mountains with the Loeb State Park off the beaten path—and the Rogue, Chetco, Winchuck and Smith Rivers nearby.

Brookings by the sea offers you your choice of year around off-shore sport fishing, or stream fishing in season. Brookings by the sea offers you the Azalea Festival, June 8 and 9th, with an outdoor bar-b-que, garden and art shows.

Azalea State Park features hundreds of 150 year old Azalea shrubs covering 25 acres—Harris Beach State Park, with sandy beaches, clamming and angling. Visit your own state park—see the Pacific at it's best—all at Brookings by the sea. Just a few hours drive from Medford—west out of Grants Pass on 199, and up the coast on 101.

The above is the copy, prepared by the Brookings-Harbor Chamber of Commerce for radio station K-BOY in Medford. The Chamber officials announced that 26 spots will be used in that station, during April, May and June to give the interior residents a chance to think about coming to Brookings for a weekend. The broadcasts will be given on Wednesday and Thursday or on Thursday and Friday.

Jack Hagan of the Bonn Motel, is the chairman of the Chamber Publicity committee, and he prepared the copy.

Ladies Auxiliary Sells

Last Saturday the Ladies Auxiliary, VFW, disposed of 85 homemade pies at a sale held in Larry's Chetco store. The pastry had all sorts of fillings so one could choose about any they desired. A feature of the sale was that two members baked over 25 pies, due to some of the ladies being unable to contribute, so they pooled their resources and "hired" others to bake for them. The ladies want to thank all those who patronized their stand and to invite everyone, both men and women, to attend their sale, all during his weekend, of new and used goods, at the VFW hall. This sale will end Saturday evening.

Proceeds of these sales will, for the most part, be expended in community projects of the Ladies Auxiliary, one of which is improving the post and Auxiliary building.

Entertains Pinochle Club

Mrs. Maudé Phillips entertained the Pinochle club at her home Wednesday, March 20th. Those present included Fern Farnham, Barbara Miller, Alice Gran, Ruth Hritz, Marie Brown, Marie Bishop, and Wanda Phillips.

Mrs. Bishop won high score, Alice Gran took Pinochle prize and Marie Brown walked away with the bobby prize.

Former Pastor Reported Dead

Rev. William F. Willings passed away on Feb. 27th at his home in Rohnerville, where he and Mrs. Willings have lived for the past several years.

Mr. Willings was pastor of the Baptist Community church in Brookings in 1941 and 1942.

He was in the reserves and was called back into active service in 1942 in secret service work.

His wife, Mrs. Mattie Willings survives him.

THOSE MILLERS

Years ago, in this country, it used to be said if one met another they'd greet them with "Good day Mr. Miller" and if they were greeted with a growl, changed to "Good day Md. Moore" and they'd be right.

In tabulating data on county families, a local snooper has at least some data on 258 Millers and only 140 Moores. The Smiths and Johnsons are quite in the minority.

The data under consideration is based on county residents up to the year 1920, or their lineal descendants.

Church of Christ To Hold Meeting

The first business meeting of the new Church of Christ in Brookings was held last Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Washburn, 826 Pioneer Road. Among other items of business, the need for acquiring property in the near future upon which to construct a church building was discussed. There will be a pot-luck dinner following the morning services April 7th. Due to the fact that the V. F. W. hall was already spoken for for Mother's Day and for some of the other Sundays, it was decided to continue meeting regularly in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Members of this new congregation are encouraged with the good beginning of the church in this community, according to Mr. E. Gilbert Cays, evangelist. More new people have been in attendance each week. The public is cordially invited to these services where each one will experience a friendly welcome. This coming Lord's day, Mr. Cays will speak in the morning worship hour on the theme, "When the Church Prays," and in the evening service his theme will be, "Is This That?"

Brookings Items

Frank Blatchly isn't feeling so good. He's figuring on going to the Vet's hospital, Portland, to see what can be done about it.

Arthur Bollinger got a little too gay and a Pneumonia colony set up housekeeping in his innards. The medicos chased 'em out, just about in the nick of time, according to Beryl, and Art ventured out Monday to sample the fresh air and sunshine.
