

Harbor News Notes

In writing up about the new arrival, Cari Jean, born to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kelley on April 1st, and telling about her April Fools birthday co-inciding with that of her grand father and great grand father, it was overlooked that she also became the fifth generation of a pioneer family of this region. The five generations include Cari Jean, her mother, Mrs. Anna Jean Gardner Kelley; grandfather, Howard-

Gardner, great grand father, Fred Gardner, and great-great grand father, A. F. (Fletch) Gardner. The Gardner family were early settlers in the Chetco Country, coming here to make their home when Fletch was about six years old, after living in Humboldt six years old, after living in Humboldt County for several years. They settled on a ;h on a homestead where the George Funk place is now, and Gardner Ridge was named after the family.

They later moved to Harbor and had a store and Post Office near the mouth of the Chetco where Archie McVay now lives. Few families in the southern Curry County area have had more to do with the development of this area than the Gardner family.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Long and two children spent the past week with his mother Mrs. Eva Lea Long. Their home is near Merrill, Ore. Mrs. Long has purchased and moved to her new home at Harbor.

MR. HOME OWNER,

A Mortgage Retirement Plan That Will—

► In the event of your death, pay an amount sufficient to retire your mortgage

FOR THE PROTECTION OF YOUR FAMILY

You'll be surprised at the ease with which a special policy can be arranged to guarantee your loved ones the money to pay off the loan, assuring them a home—a place to live and to depend upon—whether you are here or not. This is the modern way to protect an investment you already have, plus all future payments.
