PORT BUDGET HEARING SET FOR JULY 11

A notice has been printed in the Pilot for the past several weeks calling for the first budget hearing for the Port of Brookings. The hearing is scheduled for July 11th, at the council room of the Brookings city hall.

The meeting will be held at 11 a. m.

Any person subject to the tax can speak in favor of, or object at that time.

Oregon city police officials have been requested to exert all their efforts for a safe Fourth of July holiday.

The request came from Governor Robert D. Holmes in a letter to chiefs of police urging them to support the Slow Down and Live traffic safety campaign.

COUNTY GETS $9,342

According to the Oregon voter Curry County was enriched by $9,342, which represents payments made by the Electric Co-op, in lieu of taxes as provided by law.

The money was collected by the state tax commission and represents a 2% tax on the gross sales of the firm.

LARGE DELEGATION ATTENDS HEARING

A large delegation of area people attended the budget hearing of the Curry County budget board Friday at the Court House in Gold Beach.

Some of those attending were Charles Grayshel, Murray Palmer, Tom McKenzie, Virgil Clark, Al Phillips, LeRoy Pollard, Gordon Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Les Twohy and others.

There was a great deal of discussion, particularly in regard to the possibility of hiring a county road engineer.

CROCHET ENTRIES NEEDED FOR FAIR

Preliminary judging of entries for the Nationwide Crochet contest will be held at the Curry County fair, or August 9, 10, and 11, at the fairgrounds in Gold Beach.

The top prize winner in the annual competition will receive a trip for two to New York and Bermuda, plus $1,000 in addition to the grand prize many other cash awards will be given to the national winners.

The judges at the Curry County fair will award Nationwide crochet contest blue ribbons to the best piece in each of 16 classifications.

The special blue ribbons, render the entries eligible for national judging to be conducted later in the year in New York City.
