DONALD MULLANIX SENTENCED TO 5 YEARS
 Donald G. Mullanix, 22, was sentenced to five years in the Oregon State Penitentiary by Judge Carl E. Wimberly on Tuesday in Curry County Circuit court.

Mullanix pleaded guilty to stealing several cases of rifle and shot gun shells from the Enlund Equipment Co. of Gold Beach on June 6, 1957. He also admitted burglarizing several homes along the Rogue River, and one place in Eugene.

He was apprehended at Chico California and brought back to Oregon by Sheriff Glen Sabin of Curry County.

Before sentence was passed upon Mullanix, District Attorney Ed F. Akley of Brookings said "the people of this county are fed up with these local and itinerate thieves, burglars and outlaws who seem to have the idea that they can rob and steal whenever so inclined."

"From now on it is the policy of my office to request the maximum sentence for these criminals when they appear before this court. We may not be able to stop these criminals from operating in Curry County but we are going to try very hard to stop them."
