

SCENES OF ELKS PICNIC ON SUNDAY

SURPRISE PARTY

Tencouples comprised a surprise party for Lorraine Eide on her birthday Monday evening. A pot luck dinner was served. The party was held at the Elks Lodge.

YELL LEADER SAYS HELLO WORLD
